72	New Subsection AS 44.41.065(e) HB 62 Page 53, line 31	SART – Tracking System Data Entry	Requires health care providers, law enforcement agencies, and laboratories to enter SART status information into the new tracking system as specified by Department of Public Safety.
73	New Section AS 44.41.067 HB 62 Page 54, line 6	Sexual Assault Response Team (SART) Examination Kit Tracking System	Directs the Department of Public Safety to develop and operate a SEAK tracking system to track the status and location of the sexual assault examination kit, covering the kit from evidence collection through DNA/serological testing. Victims may access tracking information and receive automated status notifications. The system is confidential and not a public record, though DPS may include aggregate data in required annual reports.
74	Amends AS 47.12.110(d) SB 247 Page 54, line 19	Juvenile Proceedings – Open Hearings	Adds distribution of generated obscene CSAM (AS 11.61.121) to the list of alleged juvenile offenses for which a delinquency hearing may be opened to the public.
75	Amends AS 47.12.315(a) SB 247 Page 55, line 23	Public Disclosure of Information in Department Records Relating to Certain Minors - Juvenile Records & Public Disclosure	Adds distribution of generated obscene CSAM (AS 11.61.121) to the list of offenses for which the department must disclose information about a minor offender (13+) to the public upon request.
76	Repeals HB 101 & SB 247 Page 56, line 8	Multiple Provisions	Repeals: AS 11.41.436(a)(6) (included in new SAM provision which includes 16 and 7 year olds; AS 11.41.440(a)(2); AS 12.63.100(7)(C)(ii) (further cleanup statutes to confirm with changes made to SAM statutes being expanded to protect 16 and 17 year olds); AS 44.41.070(a) (superseded SART Kit reporting requirement).
