HB 222

Sectional Analysis

May 15th, 2026

Version T

Section 1

AS 11.56.740. Violating a protective order.

Amends AS 11.56.740(a) by adding a new subsection (4) to specify that a person commits the crime of violating a protective order if the person knowingly commits or attempts to commit an act that violates the provisions listed under the workplace violence protective order statutes.

Section 2

AS 11.56.740. Violating a protective order.

Amends AS 11.56.740(c) by adding the workplace violence protective order statutes to the meaning of "protective order."

Section 3

AS 13.26.460. Protective orders; modification; third-party compliance forms; fees.

Amends AS 13.26.460 by adding new subsection (i) to prohibit attorney fees awarded against a petitioner or a protected person seeking a protective order under AS.26.450.

Section 4

AS 18.65.530. Mandatory arrest for crimes involving domestic violence, violation of protective orders, and violation of conditions of release.

Amends AS 18.65.530(a) by clarifying that the mandatory arrest statute for crimes involving domestic violence, violation of protective orders, and violation of conditions of release is subject to the requirements of sec. 1.

Section 5

AS 18.65.540. Central registry of protective orders.

Amends AS 18.65.540(a) to add the workplace violence protective order statutes to the central registry of protective orders maintained by the Department of Public Safety.

Section 6

AS 18.65.540. Central registry of protective orders.

Amends AS 18.65.540(b) to add the workplace violence protective order statutes to the list of protective orders a peace officer enters into the central registry within 24 hours of receiving.

Section 7

AS 18.65.850 Protective orders for stalking and sexual assault

Amends AS 18.65.850(f) authorizing a judge to extend a stalking/sexual assault protective order issued under AS 18.65.850 for between one and five years, at the judge's discretion. Existing law only allows a judge to extend a long-term protective order for one year

Section 8

AS 18.65.865 Service of process forms for petitions and orders; fees; warnings; notification; and pending civil or criminal actions.

Amends AS 18.65.865 by adding new subsection (e) to prohibit attorney fees awarded against a petitioner seeking a protective order under AS 18.65.850 – 18.65.870.

Section 9

Amends AS 18.65 to add a new section: "Article 12A. Victim Counseling Center Protective Orders."

Sec. 18.65.875. Protective orders; eligible petitioners; relief.

Section (a) gives employers that operate a victim counseling center the ability to file a petition for a protective order against an individual who the employer reasonably believes: (1) committed an act of violence against the employer or an employee; or (2) made a threat of violence against the employer or an employee that can reasonably be construed as a threat that may be carried out at the employer's workplace.

Section (b) specifies that the court shall schedule a hearing and provide at least 10 days' notice to the respondent.

Section (c) details prohibited behavior of the respondent after the court issues the protective order. Subsection (4) allows other relief the court determines necessary, however it specifies that a court cannot order the surrender of a firearm unless a firearm was used in the act of violence or threat against a victim counseling center.

Section (d) describes the court's responsibilities related to issuing a protective order.

Section (e) clarifies a court may not deny a petition for a protective order solely because of a lapse of time between an act of violence or a threat of violence and the filing of the petition.

Sec. 18.65.877. Ex parte protective orders for workplace violence.

Gives employers that operate a victim counseling center the ability to file a petition for an ex parte protective order—a temporary order that would grant immediate protection.
