

Video

Live

Shows ▾

538

Shop

Log In

Stream
on

hulu

HEADLINES — ABC NEWS

Vaping

+ Add Interest

Follow the latest Vaping news, videos, and analysis from ABC News.

February 19, 2025 at 4:20 PM California lawmakers propose bill that would ban the sale of disposable e-cigarettes

California state lawmakers have announced a bill that would ban the sale of new or refurbished disposable electronic cigarettes

1 month ago Medication and text messages may be best to quit vaping, study finds

A new study found that medication and text messages may be the best way to help people stop vaping. Dr. Darien Sutton explains.

3 months ago Supreme Court divided over FDA block on kid-friendly flavored vapes

With e-cigarette sales booming, the Supreme Court heard arguments over whether the FDA unlawfully blocked approval of more than a million new flavored nicotine products.

3 months ago Kid-friendly e-cigarette flavors driving increase in sales, report finds

E-cigarettes in kid-friendly flavors are driving sales and have more addictive nicotine than ever, according to a new report from the CDC Foundation and Truth Initiative.

3 months
ago

E-cigarette purchases frequently bypass age and shipping laws, study shows

New JAMA study suggests the need for more effective enforcement of existing regulations to curb youth access to vaping products.

4 months
ago

Tobacco product use among middle, high school students hits 25-year low: CDC

A new report published Thursday from the CDC and FDA found tobacco product use among middle and high school students in the U.S. has hit a 25-year low.

4 months
ago

Tobacco product use among teens hits 25-year low

The decline in tobacco product use is largely driven by the drop in e-cigarette use, according to new federal data published Thursday.

5 months
ago

By the Numbers: Teens dump e-cigs at record rate

The government's latest National Youth Tobacco Survey shows teen e-cigarette use at a 10-year low and nicotine addiction loosening its grip on America's middle- and high-schoolers.

8 months
ago

Senate Judiciary Committee holds hearing on 'youth vaping epidemic'

Top FDA and Justice Department officials are expected to testify days after the Biden administration launched a new task force to regulate major companies in the vaping industry.

8 months
ago

FDA reverses ban on Juul e-cigarettes, opens door to possible authorization

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration rescinded its marketing ban on Juul Labs on Thursday.

1 year ago

Middle schoolers vaping at alarming rates

According to the latest youth tobacco survey from the CDC, vapes are the product of choice for children under 18.

1 year ago

New report from the CDC warns vaping among teens is on the rise

There is increasing concern as many of these young adults are becoming addicted to e-cigarettes.

2 years ago

Doctors increasingly discourage vaping amid rising health concerns

Vaping has been a method to help some people stop smoking but it is not approved by the FDA as a cessation tool.

2 years ago New study compares effects of smoking and vaping

ABC News' Dr. Jennifer Ashton breaks down the American Heart Association report, and what it says about how vaping affects people in new and different ways than smoking.

2 years ago New warning about vaping issued

The AHA found chemicals from vaping and e-cigarette products can hurt the human heart, lungs, brain, blood vessels, gastrointestinal system and other parts of your body.

2 years ago By the Numbers: The growth of vaping

A look at the numbers behind the boom in e-cigarette use in the past two years, according to a new CDC report.

2 years ago Canada becomes 1st country to put health warnings on individual cigarettes

Canada will begin putting individual warning labels on cigarettes and other tobacco products to further reduce their appeal, becoming the world's first country to do so.

2 years ago Juul to pay $462 million for alleged role in rise of underage vaping

Several attorneys general announced a new $462 million settlement from e-cigarette manufacturer Juul Labs on Wednesday.

2 years ago Juul to pay $462 million settlement, AGs say

Juul to pay $462 million settlement for 'central role in the youth vaping epidemic,' AGs say

2 years ago JUUL reaches settlement in multistate lawsuit

The e-cigarette company said it will pay $462 million dollars to six states and the District of Columbia as part of its settlement.

2 years ago Juul pays $462M settlement, its largest yet

The e-cigarette company agreed to pay six states and the District of Columbia $462 million for the company's alleged role in contributing to the increase in youth e-cigarette use.

2 years ago Documentary addresses vaping, drugs in the digital age

The new documentary, "Screenagers: Under the Influence," examines how technology shapes substance use by teenagers.

2 years ago E-cigarette maker goes on trial

Minnesota is suing Juul, accusing the e-cigarette company of illegally targeting children to get them hooked. ABC News' Andrea Fujii explains.

2 years ago Juul lawsuit goes to trial

Thirteen states have sued the e-cigarette maker since 2019, but Minnesota, which won a landmark case against big tobacco in 1998, is the first to take the company to court.

2 years ago Number of young people who 'wake and vape' on the rise, data shows

Adolescents who vape appear to be doing so more frequently and intensely.

2 years ago By the Numbers: Teens and e-cigarette use

A look at the latest figures from the FDA and CDC on the continuing use of e-cigarettes by teens despite efforts to curb their popularity.

2 years ago E-cigarette use among teens increases 21% over previous year: Study

Almost 28% of those reporting use said they used e-cigarettes every day.

2 years ago What the JUUL settlement means for the teen vaping epidemic

The settlement is the result of a two-year investigation that showed JUUL advertised its products to young people even though e-cigarette sales to children are illegal.

3 years ago FDA temporarily suspends ban of Juul products

The federal health agency announced Tuesday on Twitter that it was issuing an administrative stay because "there are scientific issues unique to the Juul application that warrant additional review."

3 years ago What is next for Juul after FDA temporarily suspends ban of its products?

It is unclear what will happen to Juul after the FDA said it is temporarily suspending its ban of the company's e-cigarettes and other vaping products.

3 years ago FDA could pull Juul e-cigarette products off shelves: Report

The Wall Street Journal reports an announcement could come as early as this week for Juul, which has been criticized for marketing nicotine-filled vape products to teens with fruity and sweet flavors.

3 years ago FDA orders Juul to be taken off the market in US

The U.S. Food and Drug Administration is ordering Juul Labs e-cigarettes and other products to be taken off the market.

3 years ago FDA plans to ban all Juul vape products

The Wall Street Journal reported the FDA plans to order all Juul products off store shelves, one of the most popular e-cigarette makers in the United States.

3 years ago FDA announces proposed ban on menthol-flavored cigarettes

Advocates say it's a step in the right direction.

3 years ago Vape company agrees to pay $50 million for marketing to minors

A now-defunct e-cigarette retailer agreed to pay to resolve allegations it marketed and sold vaping products to minors by appealing to their social media preferences.

3 years ago New warnings from FDA and CDC reveal teen vaping is a danger to general public

The new numbers released by the two agencies about teens and vaping show just how hard it is to kick the habit.

3 years ago Study: Over 2 million middle school, high school teens vape

An FDA and CDC study estimated that of the middle school and high school students who use e-cigarettes, eight out of 10 use flavored nicotine pods, and menthol is among the most popular flavors.

3 years ago FDA delays decision on Juul while banning less popular e-cigarette products

Juul is the largest maker of e-cigarette products in the country.

3 years ago FDA cracks down on e-cigarettes

Federal health officials banned the sale of thousands of e-cigarettes in the U.S. but delayed a decision on the future of top-seller Juul.

4 years ago Heated tobacco products: The next generation of smoke-free devices targeting teens

A new smoke-free alternative called heated tobacco is slowly gaining a foothold in the U.S. market.

4 years ago The uncertain future of Juul e-cigarettes

Lauren Etter, author of "The Devil's Playbook: Big Tobacco, Juul, and the Addiction of a New Generation," discusses Juul Lab's alleged role in America's vaping epidemic.

4 years ago Juul to pay $40 million in teen vaping suit settlement

This is the first agreement in a series of lawsuits the company is facing over its marketing practices.

4 years ago Juul reaches $40 million settlement for alleged role in 'teen vaping epidemic'

North Carolina's attorney general announced Monday that a $40 million settlement had been reached with e-cigarette maker Juul.

4 years ago Landmark settlement involving e-cigarette giant Juul Labs

The company agreed to pay North Carolina $40 million after Juul was accused of targeting young people with deceptive and unfair marketing campaigns to attract them to use their vaping products.

4 years ago How TikTok influencers are getting teens and young adults to quit vaping

A new initiative from an anti-tobacco group tapped influencers to persuade people to stop vaping.

5 years ago Vaping linked to COVID-19 risk among teens

A Stanford University study finds young people who vape are five times more likely to be diagnosed with the coronavirus.

5 years ago E-cigarette sales still strong even without flavored products: Study

E-cigarette companies self-regulating hasn't proven effective, according to researchers.

5 years ago Former smoker offers 4 steps to quit vaping and smoking amid the coronavirus pandemic

Brad Lamm, a former smoker of 20 years, is the author of the new book, "Quit Vaping."

5 years ago Coronavirus creates challenges for those who want to quit vaping

Brad Lamm, author of a new book called "Quit Vaping," says statistics on patients with an underlying condition of smoking could push vapers and smokers to kick the habit.

5 years ago Vaping and e-cigarettes: Adding fuel to the coronavirus fire?

Because vaping can cause dangerous lung and respiratory problems, experts say it makes sense that the habit could aggravate the symptoms of COVID-19.

