AMENDMENT

OFFERED IN THE HOUSE BY REPRESENTATIVE SEATON

TO: HB 278

Page 6, line 3, following "law."

Insert a new subsection to read:

"(e) On appeal, the commissioner may request written supplementation of the record from the applicant or the local school board. The commissioner shall make written findings regarding the application. If the commissioner finds that the local school board's decision is not supported by substantial evidence or is contrary to law, the commissioner shall remand the appeal to the local school board for further review consistent with the findings. If the commissioner finds that the denial is supported by substantial evidence and not contrary to law, the commissioner shall uphold the denial of the application."
