Department of Family and Community Services

OFFICE OF THE COMMISSIONER

THE STATE of ALASKA
GOVERNOR MIKE DUNLEAVY

HB 60 Explanation of Changes Version "A" to Version "S.A"

Section 1	This language is unchanged from section 1 of version A.
Section 2	Version S includes the newly identified need to include the Department of Family and Community Services in the definition of department.
Section 3	This language is unchanged from section 2 of version A.
Section 4	This language is unchanged from section 3 of version A.
Sections 5-10 and 12-15	Version S updated these sections to further clarify the duties of each department related to programs for runaways. Section 8 was amended on the floor of the House of Representatives to require facilities licensed as runaway shelters to make reports of suspected human and sex trafficking to a law enforcement agency and provide information to minors about human and sex trafficking and the services available to victims. A new section was added to include the definition of human trafficking.
Section 11	Version S updates the bill to include a necessary clarification related to the confidentiality of records related to shelters for runaways.
Section 16	This language is unchanged from section 10 of version A.
Section 17	Version S amends this section to replace the term "authorizing" with "applicable" from section 11 of version A. This change reflects the removal of the definition for the term "authorizing" in section 20 below.
Sections 18-19	This language is unchanged from sections 12-13 of version A.
Section 20	This language is unchanged from section 14 of version A.
Section 21	Version S amends Section 15 from version A to remove the new definition for "authorizing department" to avoid potential confusion with the duplicate definition of "applicable department."
Section 22	Version S moves the repeal of this language related to the licensure of shelters for runaways from Section 9 in version A. AS 47.32.010 was repealed and reenacted under Executive Order 121, section 79.
Section 23	This language is unchanged from section 16 of version A.
