House Ways and Means

C.S. for House Bill 165 - Explanation of changes

New Title has the following words added, "relating to public school funding,"

The CS deletes Sections 2, 3 from HB 165.

Section 1

Adds language that it is the intent of the legislature that school districts spend the increase in funding for correspondence schools on allotments to parents and not on administering the program.

Section 2

Section 1 from HB 165.

Section 3

Section 4 from HB 165.

Section 4

Section 5 from HB 165, with the addition to subsection (19) that the Department of Education and Early Development provide to any district that offers a correspondence study program the calculation of the amount of funding that is going to the district for that program.

Section 5

Section 6 from HB 165.

Section 6

Section 7 from HB 165 is amended by changing the correspondence school multiplier to 121.5 instead of 150.

Section 7

Section 8 from HB 165 and adds a section that requires each district that offers a correspondence study program to account for the program expenses separately, keep complete financial records of its expenses on the program, and to provide an annual report to the department and to the public of such.

Section 8

Section 9 of HB 165.

Section 9

Section 10 of HB 165.
