Department of Public Safety

Department Success in 2023

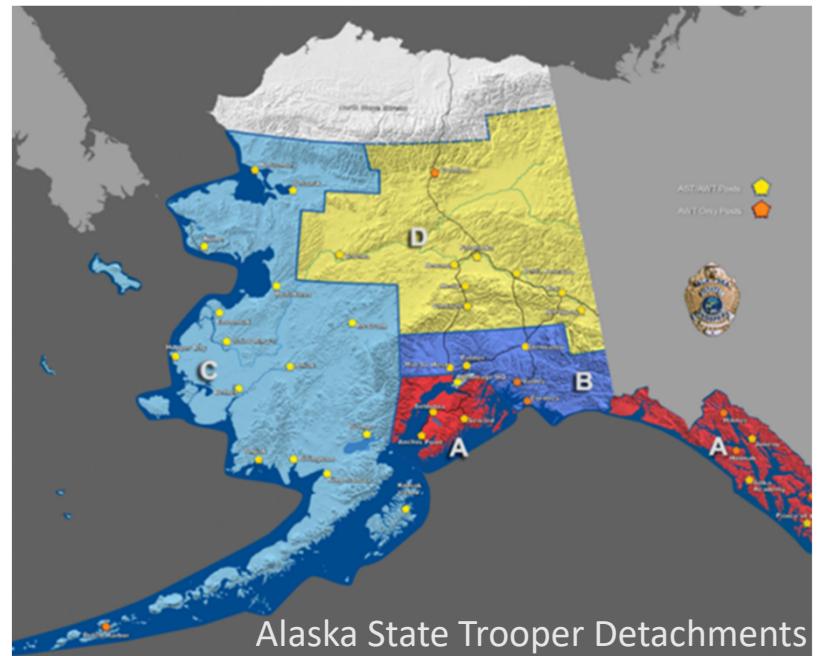

- Ongoing Trooper recruitment; 20 new Troopers graduated the academy in 2023
- Quarterly Missing Indigenous Persons Report created; 97% of all missing person reports entered into NamUs (not just Trooper cases)
- Body worn cameras deployed to all Troopers, Court Services Officers, and Deputy Fire Marshals (approximately 430); working with Village Public Safety Officer (VPSO) coordinators to deploy to the 70 VPSOs
- Bristol Bay and Area M fishery enforcement: 400 commercial vessels boarded, 150 citations issued, and thousands of pounds of salmon seized
- Deployed the Sexual Assault Examination Kit Tracking System

Department of Public Safety

Division of Alaska Wildlife Troopers

Alaska Wildlife
Troopers

Fish and Wildlife and Resource Protection

Department of Public Safety

Accomplishments

Significant presence for commercial fisheries statewide with a focus in Bristol Bay and Area M fisheries resulting in successful prosecutions of violators

Boating safety education and enforcement to reduce boating fatalities statewide

Identification of commercial resource crime across the state and prevention of unlawful commercialization of Alaska's resources

Challenges

6,640 miles of coastline, significant hunts and fisheries

Complicated regulatory structure and limited resources; 891,000 licenses sold and 90 Troopers

Increasing demand for Wildlife Troopers across the state with limited staff
