FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2024 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. SB181

Analysis

This bill makes it easier for foster parents seeking to adopt children to maintain placement with children in their care and in some circumstances elevates placement with foster parents to the same preference given to family member placements. These changes are likely to increase litigation in child in need of aid cases where children are placed with potential adoptive parents over family members.

Much like the Public Defender Agency, the Office of Public Advocacy must provide parents with an attorney in Child in Need of Aid cases. Additionally, OPA must also provide a Guardian ad Litem to assess the best interests of the child. The agency anticipates an increase in litigation for both core services as a result of this legislation.

Increased litigation and increased length of time to disposition of a case will increase costs for the Office of Public Advocacy. The Agency will need the following additional positions to respond to the increased workload:

Add Attorney (CINA Parent) 1-4 (range 24/C, Anchorage)

Personal Services - $184.2

Travel: - $5.5

Case Costs: - $27.7

Indirect rates- $14.8

Commodities - $3.5
