7   BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

8   * Section 1. AS 14.07 is amended by adding a new section to read:

9           Sec. 14.07.200. Council for Alaska Native Languages. (a) The Council for 10          Alaska Native Languages is established in the department for the purpose of 11          recommending the establishment or reorganization of programs to support the 12          preservation, restoration, and revitalization of Alaska Native languages.

13           (b) The council established under this section shall

(1) advise both the governor and legislature on programs, policies, and projects to provide for the cost-effective preservation, restoration, and revitalization of Alaska Native languages in the state;

(2) meet at least twice a year to carry out the purposes of the council; members may participate in meetings telephonically; and

(3) prepare reports of its findings and recommendations for the governor's and the legislature's consideration on or before January 1 of each even-numbered year.

(c) The governor shall appoint to the council established in this section seven voting members who are professional language experts and who represent diverse regions of the state. In addition, one member of the senate appointed by the president of the senate and one member of the house of representatives appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives shall serve on the council as nonvoting members. In appointing the nonvoting members of the council, the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives shall appoint a member of the bush caucus, if a bush caucus exists. In this subsection, "bush caucus" means a group of legislators that represents rural areas of the state.

(d) The members appointed by the governor shall serve at the pleasure of the governor.

(e) Members of the council shall serve without compensation but are entitled to per diem and travel expenses as provided under AS 39.20.180.

(f) The department shall provide staff as needed to support the council; the staff must demonstrate competency in an Alaska Native language.

* Sec. 2. AS 44.12.310(a) is amended to read:

(a) The English, Inupiaq, Siberian Yupik, Central Alaskan Yup'ik, Cup'ig, Alutiiq, Unanga/Cx, Dena'ina, Deg Xinag, Holikachuk, Koyukon, Upper Kuskokwim, Gwich'in, [TANANA,] Upper Tanana, Sahcheeg xut'een xneeg'e' (Middle Tanana), Benhti Kokhwat'ana Kenaga' (Lower Tanana), Tanacross, Hän, Ahtna, Wetal (Ts'etsa'ut), Eyak, Tlingit, Haida, and Tsimshian languages are the official languages of the State of Alaska.

* Sec. 3. AS 44.12.320 is amended to read:

Sec. 44.12.320. Scope. [THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE IS THE LANGUAGE TO BE USED BY ALL PUBLIC AGENCIES IN ALL GOVERNMENT FUNCTIONS AND ACTIONS.] The English language shall be used in the preparation of all official public documents and records, including all documents officially compiled, published, or recorded by the government.

* Sec. 4. AS 44.33.520 is repealed.

* Sec. 5. The uncodified law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a new section to read:

TRANSITION. (a) The employees of the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development who, on the day before the effective date of this Act, provide services to the Council for Alaska Native Languages under former AS 44.33.520, repealed by sec. 4 of this Act, do not become employees of the Department of Education and Early Development as a result of the transfer of the Council for Alaska Native Languages from the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development to the Department of Education and Early Development under AS 14.07.200, added by sec. 1 of this Act.

(b) Orders and regulations issued or adopted under authority of a law amended or repealed by this Act remain in effect for the term issued, or until revoked, vacated, or otherwise modified under the provisions of this Act. All contracts, rights, liabilities, and obligations created by or under a law amended or repealed by this Act and in effect on the effective date of this Act remain in effect notwithstanding this Act's taking effect. Records, reports, equipment, and other property of the Council for Alaska Native Languages whose functions are transferred under this Act shall be transferred to implement the provisions of this Act.

(c) A council member serving on the Council for Alaska Native Languages on the day before the effective date of this Act shall continue to serve as a council member of the Council for Alaska Native Languages, transferred from the Department of Commerce, Community, and Economic Development to the Department of Education and Early Development under AS 14.07.200, added by sec. 1 of this Act, to the same extent that the council member would have remained a member if the council had not been transferred.

(d) As soon as practicable after the effective date of AS 14.07.200(c), added by sec. 1 of this Act, the governor shall appoint to the Council for Alaska Native Languages the two

1 additional voting members created by AS 14.07.200(c), added by sec. 1 of this Act.
