

Dear Council,

It seems to me The Alaska Council on Emergency Medical Services is essential for our state! It is inconceivable Alaska could do without it! I was born in Kodiak, & present during the 1964 earthquake & tsunami. Each community in Alaska had different experiences & responses to emergencies.

Limited communication relied on telegrams, radio, & word of mouth!

Respectfully,

Mary Jane Longrich