

Ted Stevens Center for Arctic Security Studies

Overview Brief

Security Cooperation in and across the Arctic

Security Through Global Partnerships

DoD Regional Centers for Security Studies (RCs) are international venues for bilateral and multilateral research, communication, exchange of ideas, and training involving U.S. and foreign military, civilian, and nongovernmental participants, utilizing their unique academic forums to build strong, sustainable international networks of security leaders.

RCs are unique among institutional capacity building (ICB) providers, as they target a primarily multilateral, inter-ministerial, senior-level audience.

WHO

Allies and Partners
Department of Defense
U.S. Government Interagency
Industry
Non-Governmental Organizations
Academia and Think Tanks

WHAT

Education
Courses
Workshops
Field Programs
Research
Conferences
Digital Programming
Fellowships
Alumni Dialogues

WHY

Encourage and enable partner nations to apply capabilities and capacity, provide access, and/ or support US interests.

DSCA: Executive Agent

NORTHCOM:
Develop innovative and creative programs in support of campaign objectives

OUSDP:
Strategic level guidance

Lines of Effort

Education

Engagement

Research

Supporting Activities

- Arctic focused courses designed for security practitioners
 - Arctic & Climate Security Dilemmas and tailored on-site primers
 - IDE Fellows Program
- Facilitate strategic dialogue in, across and about the Arctic through seminars, conferences, and workshops
 - Arctic Field Programs
 - Digital Programming
- Practitioner focused research and analysis
 - Journal of Arctic and Climate Security Studies (JACSS)
 - Support to various multinational research efforts

End State

1. Advanced Arctic awareness
2. Advanced DoD Arctic priorities
3. Reinforced rules-based order in the Arctic
4. Effective support to Deterrence
5. Impacts of climate change in the Arctic region understood and implemented/integrated into defense plans

Meeting the Challenge Through Networks And Solutions

Executive Education • Strategic Engagement • Research and Analysis

Opportunities for Collaboration

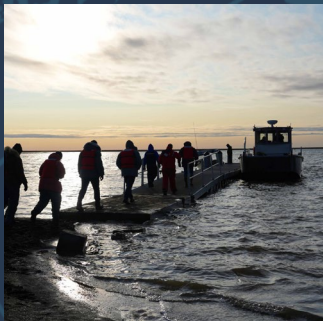

Research and Analysis

- Contribute an article to the Journal of Arctic and Climate Security Studies
- Suggest research areas or highlight practitioner needs

School of Arctic and Climate Security Studies

- Enroll in one of our upcoming courses
- Host an Arctic and Climate Security Dilemma
- Serve as a guest lecturer

Strategic Engagement

- Stay up to date on TSC by reading our monthly newsletter True North
- Follow us on social media
- Tune into our webinar Arctic Connections
- Arctic Chairs program