REF: Reappointment to the Alaska Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy Board

Dear Boards & Commissions,

I serve on the Alaska Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy as the Public Member and my current term will expire March 1, 2024.

I would like to seek reappointment to the Alaska Board of Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy. I have been an engaged strong contributor to the Board and I would like to continue Board service as a member of the PT/OT Board. I will continue to contribute my experience and knowledge as the Public Member to effectively participate in diligence in licensing for community, public and patient safety, as well as, working to establish standards to remain current with national trends and the application of those trends to Alaska working toward ensuring continued access to high quality healthcare for our communities statewide. I have consistently participated in State and National Regulatory Training during this term.

I have a strong sense of professional responsibility and a robust skill set focused on ensuring policies, procedures and processes comply with Federal, State and Licensing and Accreditation agency regulations. I have 30 plus years' experience in serving on industry boards, local, state and national in leadership capacity and enjoy working as a collaborative member of a Board.

As the Public Member of the Board, my background and experiences bring insights to discussions as the Board focuses on serving the public interest and protection.

Please accept this letter as my request for consideration of reappointment for a second term effective March of 2024 to the Alaska Board of Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy.

Please confirm receipt of my reappointment request and advise me of the next steps of process in requesting reappointment.

Respectfully,

Rebecca S. Dean, MA, FACMPE
Public Member, Alaska Board of Physical Therapy and Occupational Therapy

I have affirmation from Nikki Silcott verifying this letter of request was received.

Thank you for your consideration of my request for reappointment.
