CRP ALASKA CITIZEN REVIEW PANEL

Presented by Dr. Retchenda George-Bettisworth

PURPOSE

Congress created Citizen Review Panels (CRPs) as part of the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act (CAPTA) to help child protection systems be more responsive to community needs.

A CRP is a mechanism for public participation in child protection. It should facilitate robust and meaningful participation by citizens to promote a healthy and collaborative child protection system.

MANDATES

Federal Mandate 42 U.S.C.§ 5106a.(c)

Examine the policies, procedures, and practices of state and local child protection agencies and evaluate the extent to which these agencies are effectively carrying out their child protection responsibilities. Conduct public outreach both to assess the impact of current policies and procedures, and to solicit public comment on the panel's recommendations.

State Mandate AS 47.14.205

The state Panel shall evaluate the extent to which the department is effectively carrying out its child protection responsibilities under (1) the state plan submitted to the United States Department of Health and Human Services under 42 U.S.C. 5106a(b); (2) child protection standards under federal and state laws; and (3) any other criteria that the Panel considers important to ensuring the protection of children.

STRUCTURE OF THE CRP

Formed in 2002 Per Alaska State Regulation (7 AAC 58), the CRP seats between 5 and 9 members.

Membership is Voluntary

The Panel is voluntary and is expected to reflect the diversity of the state.

Coordinator Contract

Created in 2006 to assist the Panel with coordination and administrative functions

PRINCIPAL FUNCTIONS OF THE CRP

EVALUATION

The Panel will evaluate OCS compliance with federal and state laws, examining policies and procedures for consistent statewide implementation while still being responsive to the diversity of needs across the state.

PUBLIC OUTREACH

The Panel will identify and implement means to gather feedback on procedures and practices for delivering child protection services in Alaska. As specified above, the information thus collected will be utilized in its evaluation function.

ADVOCACY

The Panel will conduct appropriate actions to help improve Alaska's child protection services system.

ACTIVITIES

- ☐ Work Plan Development
- Monthly & Quarterly Meetings
- Work Plan Activities
- □ Briefing to Legislature
- □ National Conference
- ☐ Annual Meeting & Report

ANNUAL REPORT FY24

OCS RECRUITMENT PRACTICES

- OCS is collecting HR data and updating processes
- Policies may not accommodate diverse structure

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Flexible hiring practices
- More attractive hiring process

ANNUAL REPORT FY24

PREVENTION EFFORTS:

SCREENED-OUT REPORTS
REFERRAL TO SUPPORT SERVICES

- Collaborate with community organizations
- Eliminate barriers to direct support

RECOMMENDATIONS

- Look for examples in other States
- Place OCS workers at partnering organizations
- Work with administration to develop solutions
- Create report of annual screened-out cases

TWO PHASE WORK PLAN CYCLE

Each year, the Panel will prioritize focus areas critical to improving child welfare services in Alaska. Each priority will be organized into two phases:

Phase One:

Education &

Knowledge

Building

Phase Two:

Action &

Implementation

PHASE ONE – Education & Knowledge Building

EXPERT ENGAGEMENT

KNOWLEDGE DEVELOPMENT

SYNTHESIS & PLANNING

The cycle begins with the Panel selecting key focus areas that will guide its efforts over the next two years. The Panel identifies subject matter experts in the focus areas and requests data and presentations.

The Panel dedicates time to in-depth
discussions and expert consultations specific to each focus area.

As each focus area progresses through Phase 1, the Panel reviews the information to inform planning for Phase 2.

PHASE TWO – Action & Implementation

This phase focuses on translating knowledge into actionable strategies and initiatives to address identified issues within the focus areas.

CRP CURRENT FOCUS AREAS

MANDATORY REPORTING

Mandatory reporting, established under the Child Abuse Prevention and Treatment Act, has been a central method for addressing child abuse and neglect in the U.S. for fifty years.

Phase One

Data Collection Expert Consultation Community Feedback

Phase Two

Advocacy
Training Enhancements
Community Engagement

OUT-OF-HOME PLACEMENT

Out-of-home placements refer to the temporary care arrangements made for children who cannot safely remain in their homes due to abuse, neglect, or other safety concerns.

Phase One

Assessment Of Current Systems
Collaboration With OCS And Providers
Cultural & Community Considerations

Phase Two

Action and implementation will begin development in Quarter 3

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FY25

In spring 2025, the Panel will develop a set of recommendations based on findings from its focus areas to be included in an annual report. This will include actionable steps for the Office of Children's Services (OCS) to consider, such as:

- ☐ Enhancing the mandatory reporting process to ensure timely, accurate reporting and effective use of resources.
- □ Advocating for ongoing training and education for mandatory reporters and caregivers.

The Panel will hear from subject matter experts during 24-25, leading up to recommendations in its annual report.
