House Bill 146 Regulation of Fireworks Summary of Changes Version A to Version B

House Bill (HB) 146 was amended in House State Affairs to add clarifying language regarding the buildings the Department of Public Safety may enter for compliance inspections. The change amended Section 2 and Alaska Statute (AS) 18.72.010(c) by:

- replacing “any” with “a” regarding the buildings that may be entered
- adding “this subsection may not be construed to authorize entry into a private residence in which fireworks may be stored for personal use”
