

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

Good afternoon, Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee. My name is Austin Sas, and I stand before you as a proud American Legion member. My Charitable organization is dedicated to supporting our community and veterans throughout the state of Alaska.

Today, I am here to advocate for passage of HB 200/SB 146. This bill will significantly improve the capacity of charitable groups like ours to positively impact our community. I believe we can generate more funds for all Alaska charities with the passage of electronic pull tabs. I urge support of HB 200/ SB 146.

Sincerely,

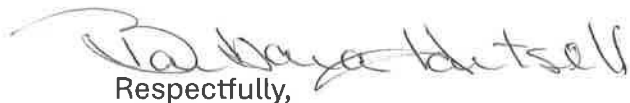

Austin Sas

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Barb Hartsell. I am a member of the American Legion member. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Barb Hartsell

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion and Moose Lodge. Our organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be 'Bob Galekovich', with a long, sweeping horizontal line extending to the right.

Bob Galekovich

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Brittny Raye, and I stand before you as a member of the American Legion, Elks, and Moose. Charitable gaming is the lifeline for our charities and by adding electronic pull tabs more money can be generated to help all these organizations who are dedicated to supporting our families, veterans and community.

I am here to express my strong support for HB 200/SB 146. This legislation will significantly enhance the ability of charities across the state of Alaska.

Passing HB 200/SB 146 is the right thing to do. If it becomes law, we can expand our reach, allowing us to support more individuals in need.

In closing, I urge you to consider the profound impact HB 200/SB 146 will have on charitable organizations and the communities we serve. Please vote Yes on HB 200.SB 146 Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Brittny Raye', is written over the word 'Sincerely,'.

Brittny Raye

Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee

My name is Cara Oga-Coloma. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of multiple Veteran and Fraternal organizations. All these organizations rely on charitable gaming. Charitable gaming is the lifeline of our charities with the state of Alaska. With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Cara Oga- Coloma

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

I am writing to express my strong support for [HB 200/SB 146], a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion and our organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. The electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of [HB 200/SB 146.]

Respectfully,

Carrie Crook

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Carrie Crook". The ink is dark and the signature is fluid, with the first name "Carrie" and last name "Crook" clearly distinguishable.

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Charles Boring. I am an American Legion Member. Our veteran organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Charles Boring', with a long vertical line extending downwards from the end of the signature.

Charles Boring

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

Please Support HB 200/SB 146. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146. My name is Cody Sas. I am a member of the American legion. By introducing electronic pull tabs our organization could have paper pull tabs and electronic pull tabs to increase our overall revenue. Along with other charities across the state of Alaska can raise more funds to help support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Cody Sas

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Cody Sas', is written over the printed name. The signature is stylized with a large, sweeping initial 'C' and a long, horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

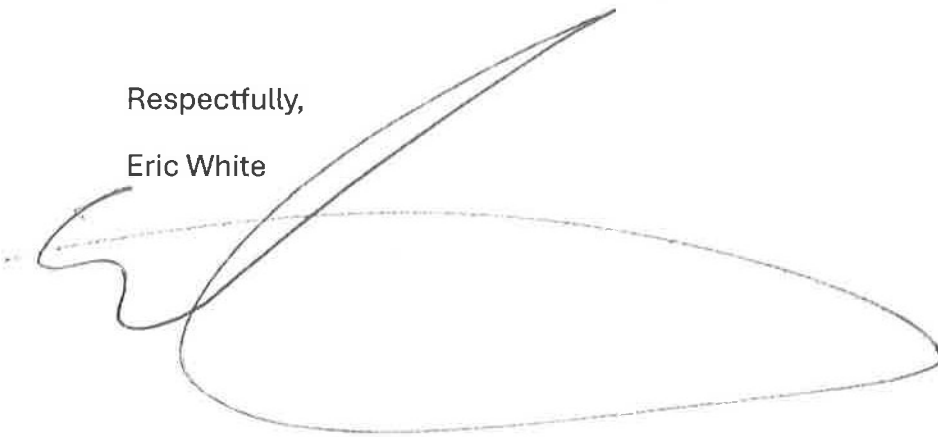

My name is Eric White. I am writing to express my strong support for [HB 200/SB 146], a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion. Our organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. The electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of [HB 200/SB 146.]

Respectfully,

Eric White

A large, stylized handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'Eric White', written over the printed name.

Senate Committee of Labor & Commerce,

My name is Ernest King. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion, VFW, Amvets & Moose. Every one of the organizations that I belong to rely on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Along with bringing in new members to help sustain our organizations for our future.

Please support HB/200 SB146

Respectfully,

 Ernest King

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Greg Hartsell. I am a member of the American Legion member. Our veteran organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Greg Hartsell', written in a cursive style. The signature is positioned above the printed name 'Greg Hartsell'.

Greg Hartsell

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Iris Boring. I am writing to express my strong support for [HB 200/SB 146], a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion. Our organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. The electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of [HB 200/SB 146.]

Respectfully,

Iris Boring

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Iris M Boring". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the typed name "Iris Boring".

Dear Honorary Committee Members,

My name is Jaqueline Brown. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion, Moose Lodge and Amvets. Our organizations rely on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jaqueline Brown', with a stylized, flowing script.

Jaqueline Brown

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Jaqueline Williams. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion and Moose Lodge. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Jacqueline Williams

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Mr. James Detweiler. I am a member of the American Legion member. Our American Legion Veterans organization relies on charitable gamins as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Mr. James Detweiler

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Comittee,

My name is Jason Porter. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion and Moose Lodge. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Jason Porter

Dear Honorary House Finance Representatives,

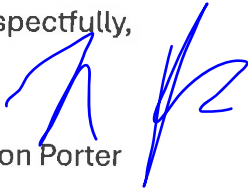

My name is Jason Porter. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion and Moose Lodge. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Jason Porter

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to be 'JP' or 'Jason Porter', written over the printed name.

Dear Honorary Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Jeremy Strickland. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion. Our organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Jeremy Strickland

Dear Honorary Committee Members,

My name is Jesus Zavala. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion and Amvets. Our organizations rely on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink that reads "Jesus Zavala". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.

Jesus Zavala

Good afternoon, Honorary Committee Members. My name is Jimmy Weir, and I stand before you as a proud American Legion member. My charitable organization is dedicated to supporting our community and veterans throughout the state of Alaska.

I am here to express my strong support for HB 200/SB 146. With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Jimmy Weir', with a long, sweeping horizontal stroke extending to the right.

Jimmy Weir

Dear Honorary Committee Members,

My name is Justin Davis. I am an American Legion Member. Our veteran organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Justin Davis

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Justin Davis". The signature is written in black ink and is positioned below the printed name.

Dear Honorary Committee Members,

My name is Kimberly Crisafulli. I am an American Legion member. Our veteran organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Kimberly Crisafulli". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a large initial 'K'.

Kimberly Crisafulli

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Larry Bixsen, and I stand before you as proud American Legion member. My charitable organization is dedicated to supporting our community and veterans throughout the state of Alaska.

I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/ SB 146. With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska Charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Larry Bixsen". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Larry" and last name "Bixsen" clearly distinguishable.

Larry Bixsen

Dear Honorary Committee Memembers,

My name is Megan Louis. I am writing to express my strong support for HB 200/SB 146, a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion and Moose Lodge. Our organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. With the introduction of electronic pull tabs. I believe we can generate more funds for our community and organizations. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

Megan Louis

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be 'Megan Louis', written in a cursive style.

Dear Honorary Committee Members,

Good afternoon, Honorary Committee Members. My name Misty Louis, and I stand before you as a proud American Legion member. My Charitable organization is dedicated to supporting our community and veterans throughout the state of Alaska.

Today, I am here to advocate for passage of HB 200/SB 146. This bill will significantly improve the capacity of charitable groups like ours to positively impact our community. I believe we can generate more funds for all Alaska charities with the passage of electronic pull tabs. I urge support of HB 200/ SB 146.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Misty Louis', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Misty Louis

Dear Senate of Labor & Commerce Committee,

My name is Ray Ramos. I am writing to express my strong support for [HB 200/SB 146], a bill to modernize charitable gaming through the authorization of electronic pull tabs. I am a member of the American Legion. Our organization relies on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. The electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of [HB 200/SB 146.]

Respectfully,

Ray Ramos

Dear Honorary Committee Members,

My name is Xicano Zavala. I am an American Legion and Amvets member. Our veteran organizations rely on charitable gaming as a means of fundraising. We use the funds from charitable gaming to support our local community, families, schools and veterans.

Information from other states makes it clear that electronic pull tabs increase revenue to charities. In the states where electronic pull tabs are operated, charities experience significant increases in revenue. Electronic games are popular and drive business. [In addition, veteran and fraternal organizations, like ours, often enjoy membership expansion, giving new life to these organizations and contributing to their long-term sustainability.]

Electronic pull tabs also streamline and simplify reporting. They are less work, more accurate, and because they capture all transactions, more accountable. Electronic pull tabs will be beneficial to all Alaska charities. I urge your support of HB 200/SB 146.

Respectfully,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to read 'Xicano Zavala', with a stylized, cursive script.

Xicano Zavala