* Sec. 6. AS 18.65 is amended by adding new sections to article 11 to read:

Sec. 18.65.815. Gun violence protective orders. (a) A peace officer or household member who reasonably believes that a person is a danger to self or others by possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm may file a petition in the district or superior court for a protective order against the person. The petition must include a description of the number, types, and locations of any firearms or ammunition the petitioner believes are owned or possessed by the respondent and the basis for the petition.

(b) When a peace officer or household member files a petition for a protective order, the court shall schedule a hearing and provide at least 10 days' notice to the respondent of the hearing and of the respondent's right to appear and be heard, either in person or through an attorney. If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the respondent is a danger to self or others by possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm, regardless of whether the respondent appears at the hearing, the court may order the relief available under (c) of this section. The provisions of a protective order issued under this section are effective for six months unless earlier dissolved by the court.

(c) A protective order issued under this section shall prohibit the respondent from possessing, owning, purchasing, receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive a firearm or ammunition.

(d) If the court issues a protective order under this section, the court shall

(1) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order is understood by

1 the petitioner and by the respondent, if present;

2 (2) have the order delivered to the appropriate local law enforcement
3 agency for expedited service;

4 (3) direct the respondent to surrender to the appropriate law 5 enforcement agency or sell to a firearms dealer all firearms and ammunition that the 6 respondent possesses or owns within 24 hours after receiving the order.

7 Sec. 18.65.820. Ex parte and emergency gun violence protective orders. (a)

8 A peace officer or household member who reasonably believes that a person is a 9 danger to self or others may file a petition under AS 18.65.815 and request an ex parte
10 gun violence protective order. If the court finds that the petition establishes by a 11 preponderance of the evidence that the respondent poses a significant danger of injury 12 to self or others by possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm, that less 13 restrictive alternatives have been tried and were ineffective, and that a peace officer 14 has certified to the court in writing the efforts, if any, that have been made to provide 15 notice to the respondent, the court shall ex parte and without notice to the respondent 16 issue a protective order. Before issuing the protective order, the court shall examine on 17 oath the petitioner and any witnesses the petitioner produces. The court may require 18 the petitioner and any witnesses to submit a written affidavit signed under oath instead 19 of examining the petitioner and witnesses. An ex parte protective order issued under 20 this subsection shall prohibit the respondent from possessing, owning, purchasing, or 21 receiving a firearm or ammunition. An ex parte protective order expires 20 days after 22 the order is issued unless dissolved earlier by the court at the request of either the 23 petitioner or the respondent after notice and, if requested, a hearing. If the court issues 24 an ex parte protective order, the court shall have the order delivered to the appropriate 25 law enforcement agency for expedited service.

26 (b) A peace officer may request an emergency gun violence protective order 27 from a judicial officer. A peace officer may make the request orally, either in person 28 or by telephone, or by submitting a sworn written statement. If the court finds by a 29 preponderance of the evidence that the respondent poses an immediate danger of 30 injury to self or others by possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm and 31 that less restrictive alternatives have been tried and were ineffective, the court ex parte

1 shall issue an emergency protective order. An emergency protective order shall 2 prohibit the respondent from possessing, owning, purchasing, or receiving a firearm or 3 ammunition. An emergency protective order expires 72 hours after it is issued unless 4 dissolved earlier by the court at the request of the petitioner. A peace officer who 5 obtains an emergency protective order under this subsection shall

6 (1) place the provisions of an oral order in writing on a form provided 7 by the court and file the written order with the issuing court by the end of the judicial 8 day after the order is issued; and 9 (2) immediately serve a copy of the order on the respondent.

10 (c) In determining whether to issue a protective order under this section, the 11 court may consider evidence that includes

12 (1) a recent act or threat of violence by the respondent against self or 13 others, regardless of whether the act or threat involved a firearm;

14 (2) a pattern of acts or threats of violence by the respondent against 15 self or others within the previous 12 months;

16 (3) behavior by the respondent that presents an imminent threat of 17 harm to self or others;

18 (4) a violation of a protective order by the respondent;

19 (5) a previous or existing protective order against the respondent;

20 (6) the respondent's prior conviction of a crime that constitutes 21 domestic violence as defined in AS 18.66.990;

22 (7) the respondent's ownership of, access to, or intent to possess a 23 firearm;

24 (8) the unlawful or reckless use, display, or brandishing of a firearm by 25 the respondent;

26 (9) a history of use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force 27 by the respondent against another person;

28 (10) the respondent's history of stalking another person;

29 (11) the prior arrest of the respondent for a felony offense or violent 30 crime;

31 (12) corroborated evidence of the respondent's abuse of controlled

1 substances or alcohol;

2 (13) the respondent's recent acquisition of a firearm or ammunition.

3 Sec. 18.65.825. Modification of gun violence protective order. (a) A 4 petitioner or the respondent may request modification of a gun violence protective 5 order issued under AS 18.65.815 or 18.65.820(a). If a request is made for modification 6 of

7 (1) a protective order, after notice and hearing under AS 18.65.815, the 8 court shall schedule a hearing within 20 days after the date the request is made, except 9 that, if the court finds that the request is meritless on its face, the court may deny the 10 request without a hearing; or

11 (2) an ex parte protective order under AS 18.65.820(a), the court shall 12 schedule a hearing on three days' notice or on shorter notice as the court may 13 prescribe.

14 (b) If the court modifies a protective order under this section, the court shall 15 issue a modified order and shall

16 (1) make reasonable efforts to ensure that the order is understood by 17 the respondent, if present at the hearing; and

18 (2) have the order delivered to the appropriate local law enforcement
19 agency for expedited service.

20 Sec. 18.65.830. Surrender of firearms and ammunition. (a) When a court 21 issues a gun violence protective order under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825, the court shall 22 order the respondent to surrender to the appropriate local law enforcement agency or 23 to sell to a firearms dealer all firearms and ammunition that the respondent possesses, 24 owns, or has within the respondent's custody or control within 24 hours after receiving 25 the protective order.

26 (b) Within 48 hours after receiving notice of the protective order, the 27 respondent shall file with the

28 (1) court an original receipt showing that all firearms and ammunition 29 have been surrendered to the local law enforcement agency or sold to a firearms 30 dealer; and

31 (2) local law enforcement agency that served the protective order a

1 copy of the receipt filed under (1) of this subsection.

2 (c) A law enforcement agency shall retain any firearms or ammunition 3 surrendered to the law enforcement agency under this section until the expiration of 4 the gun violence protective order. When the protective order expires, the law 5 enforcement agency shall return the firearms or ammunition to the respondent.

6 (d) A respondent who has surrendered firearms or ammunition to a law
7 enforcement agency and does not want the firearms or ammunition returned may sell 8 or transfer title of the firearms or ammunition to a firearms dealer.

9 (e) A person other than the respondent who claims title to any firearms or 10 ammunition surrendered under a protective order issued under AS 18.65.815 - 11 18.65.825 may petition the court to have the firearms or ammunition returned to the 12 person.

13 Sec. 18.65.835. Service of process; forms for petitions and orders; fees; 14 warnings; notification; and pending civil or criminal actions. (a) Service of 15 process of an order issued by the court under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825 shall be as 16 provided in AS 18.66.160 for service of process of domestic violence protective 17 orders.

18 (b) The Alaska Court System shall prepare forms for petitions and protective 19 orders and instructions for their use by a petitioner seeking a protective order under 20 AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825. The forms must conform to the Alaska Rules of Civil 21 Procedure, except that information on the forms may be filled in by legible
22 handwriting. Filing fees may not be charged in an action seeking only the relief 23 provided in AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.840. Each protective order form must contain the 24 following statements in boldface type:

25 (1) "Violation of this order may be a misdemeanor, punishable by up 26 to one year of incarceration and a fine of up to $10,000"; and 27 (2) "To the restrained person: this order will last until the date and time 28 noted above. You are required to surrender all firearms and ammunition that you own 29 or possess in accordance with AS 18.65.830, and you may not have in your custody or 30 control, own, purchase, possess, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm 31 or ammunition while this order is in effect. You may seek the advice of an attorney as

1 to any matter connected with the order. The attorney should be consulted promptly so 2 that the attorney may assist you in any matter connected with the order."

3 (c) In addition to other information required, a petition for a protective order 4 must include a statement of pending civil and criminal actions involving the 5 respondent, if known. While a protective order is in effect or a petition for a protective 6 order is pending, both the petitioner and respondent have a continuing duty to inform 7 the court of pending civil and criminal actions involving the respondent, if known.

8 Sec. 18.65.840. Notification of law enforcement agencies. When a court 9 issues or accepts for filing a protective order under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825, the 10 court shall send a copy of the order to the appropriate local law enforcement agency.
11 Each law enforcement agency shall establish procedures to inform peace officers of 12 protective orders. Peace officers shall use every reasonable means to enforce a 13 protective order issued or filed under AS 18.65.815 - 18.65.825.
