CSHB 228 (STA) am - 33-LS0976\T.A

Summary of Changes from Previous Version \T

1. A new paragraph was added as section 1 (b) (11), and following subsections were renumbered. The new section 1 (b) (11) reads, “one member who is a pharmacist, selected by the board of directors of the Alaska Pharmacy Association.”
2. The paragraph in section 1 (b) (10), which read, “one member of the faculty of the division of population health sciences at the University of Alaska, selected by the president of the University of Alaska,” was deleted and following subsections were renumbered.
3. A new paragraph was added as section 1 (b) (7), and following subsections were renumbered. The new section 1 (b) (7) reads, “one member who is a physician or osteopath specializing in behavioral health, selected by the Board of Trustees of the Alaska State Medical Association.”
4. The paragraph in section 1 (b) (8), which read “one member representing the psychiatric profession, selected by the governing body of the Alaska Psychiatric Association” in the previous version was reworded to read, “one member who is a physician or osteopath specializing in psychiatry, selected by the governing body of the Alaska Psychiatric Association.”
5. The number of members the task force could appoint after assembling under section 1 (b) (14) was reduced from three to one.
6. Section 1 (c) was modified to allow the legislative members of the task force appointed by the presiding officers of the House and Senate to select a designee to attend a meeting of the task force on their behalf, and section 1 (f) (1) was modified to clarify that the task force may meet electronically or in person.
7. The date the task force’s report is due to the legislature and the governor was moved to January 31, 2025, from December 31, 2024. The task force’s termination date was moved to the end of the first session of the Thirty-Forth Legislature, where previously it had been the date the Thirty-Fourth Legislature convenes.
