

Conditions for Learning Federal Grants

Alaska Family Engagement Center (AFEC)

US Department of Education: Statewide Family Engagement Center

Duration: 2022-2027

Annual Award: $978,455

Total Award: $4,892,275

AASB, AK DEED, Stone Soup, key partners and coalition members will offer training and support to implement evidence-based family engagement approaches to strengthen family and school partnerships in Alaska.

Districts/Partners: Aleutians East, Anchorage, Bering Strait, Craig, Dillingham, Juneau, Kodiak Island, Lower Kuskokwim, Lower Yukon, Nome, North Slope, Northwest Arctic, and St. Mary's.

Project Transform: Trauma-Engaged Schools

US Department of Education: EIR Grant

Duration: 2023-2027

Annual Award: $799,516

Total Award: $3,997,580

This is a partnership between AASB and AK DEED to improve student academic, behavioral, and SEL outcomes by supporting trauma-engaged professional learning and practices in nine school districts.

Districts/Partners: Chatham, Copper River, Juneau, Ketchikan, Lower Kuskokwim, Sitka, North Slope, Lower Yukon, and Yupiit.

Southeast Alaska Full-Service Community Schools

US Department of Education: Full-Service Community Schools

Duration: 2023-2027

Annual Award: $2,903,320

Total Award: $14,309,665

This uses a full-service community schools model to embed key supports for students, families, and communities to improve schools' kinder transitions, early childhood case management, postsecondary support, language learning and cultural programs.

Districts/Partners: Chatham, Hydaburg, Juneau, Yakutat, Tlingit and Haida, Sealaska Heritage Institute, and Haa Tóoch Lichéesh.

Alaska STRONG: Standing Together, Relationships, Opportunities, Networks and Goals

Office of Family Administration: Healthy Marriage Responsible Fatherhood

Duration: 2020-2025

Annual Award: $749,499

Total Award: $3,747,495

This grant supports a fatherhood and parenting program that incorporates evidence-based approaches to improve healthy relationships, tools and support for positive parenting skills. It is a culturally immersive program that explores relationships, parenting, and how to support children in social emotional and academic learning.

Districts/Partners: Anchorage.

Kayuli: Supporting Strong People

Bureau of Justice Assistance: STOP Grant

Duration: 2020-2023

Annual Award: $249,964

Total Award: $749,893

The Kayuli program focuses on preventing school violence by embedding a youth mental health, wellness and SEL approach that is founded on Yup'ik values and ways of learning into student learning and teacher professional training.

Districts/Partners: Lower Yukon School District communities - Kotlik, Hooper Bay, Mountain Village, Scammon Bay, Emmonak.

Kayuli - Pulasaraq: Supporting Strong People

Bureau of Justice Assistance: STOP Grant

Duration: 2022-2025

Annual Award: $321,667

Total Award: $965,000

The Kayuli - Pulasaraq program expands the Yup'ik mental health and school safety models in new districts and communities

Districts/Partners: Nunam Iqua, Pilot Station, Russian Mission, Alakanuk, and Marshall. Year 3 will also bring in St. Mary's, Kashunamiut, Lower Kuskokwim and Bering Strait.

Conditions for Learning State Grants & Funding Contracts

2024-2025

Project Transform/Mental Health Trust

Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority

Duration: July 2023 - December 2024

Total Award: $150,000

1) Supports training, policy adoption, and strategic planning that includes mental health and family partnership; 2) Supports staff evaluation incentives for Trauma-Engaged Schools.
These funds will support three grants and leverage more than six times the funds for Alaskan communities to work on trauma-engaged schools, mental health, and early childhood integrated supports.

Project Transform/Mental Health Trust

Alaska Mental Health Trust Authority

Duration: January 2025 - December 2025

Total Award: $150,000

1) Supports training, policy adoption, and strategic planning that includes mental health and family partnership; 2) Supports staff evaluation incentives for Trauma-Engaged Schools.
These funds will support three grants and leverage more than six times the funds for Alaskan communities to work on trauma-engaged schools, mental health, and early childhood integrated supports.

Alaska DEED SP - Suicide Prevention

Alaska Department of Education and Early Development

Duration: July 2023 - December 2024

Total Award: $20,000

Supports professional development suicide prevention family resources and trauma-engaged resource development, and coaching.

Alaska DEED AW25 - Project AWARE

Alaska Department of Education and Early Development

Duration: July 2024 - June 2025

Total Award: $25,000

Support statewide professional boundaries resource development work. Develop resources and materials such as podcasts, handbooks, and flyers, to educate staff, students, families and communities on professional boundaries.