

Alaska Statute 4

Sec. 14.17.990.

Definitions.

In this chapter, unless the context requires otherwise,

(1) "ADM or average daily membership" means the aggregate number of full-time equivalent students enrolled in a school district during the student count period for which a determination is being made, divided by the actual number of days that school is in session for the student count period for which the determination is being made;

(2) "district" means a city or borough school district or a regional educational attendance area;

(3) "district adjusted ADM" means the number resulting from the calculations under AS 14.17.410 (b) (1);

(4) "district ADM" means the sum of the ADMs in a district;

(5) "eligible federal impact aid" means the amount of federal impact aid received by a district as of March 1 of the fiscal year as a result of an application submitted in the preceding fiscal year, including advance payments and adjustments received since March 1 of the preceding fiscal year from prior year applications, under 20 U.S.C. 7701 – 7714, except payments received under former 20 U.S.C. 7703(f) (2) (B), to the extent the state may consider that aid as local resources under federal law;

(6) "local contribution" means appropriations and the value of in-kind services made by a district; does not include appropriations or the value of in-kind services made by a district for student transportation, nutrition services, food services, a preschool, pre-kindergarten, or other early education program, career and technical education, a before-school program, an after-school program, or a student activity.

 Sec. 3. This Act takes effect immediately under AS 01.10.070

(7) "taxable real and personal property" means all real and personal property taxable under the laws of the state. Local Contribution
