

Dear Representative Stutes,

As you learn more about the importance of Southeast Alaska's transboundary rivers and their vital habitat and fisheries, I hope you see the need to involve the influence and power of our federal government to negotiate with Canada on protecting our resources.

This is a vital international issue that deserves higher government involvement.

Sincerely,

Michelle Kaelke

Juneau, AK 99801