

Lee Posey

Federal Affairs Counsel, Education Committee

lee.posey@ncsl.org

202.624.8196

National Council of State Legislatures

Lee is a Federal Affairs Counsel with the Education Committee of the National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL). She conducts NCSL lobbying activities on education, representing state positions and concerns to Congress and the Administration, and was NCSL's chief lobbyist on ESEA reauthorization.

She has been at NCSL since 1999. Her experience at NCSL has also included policy and lobbying work on a wide variety of issues including TANF, federal child care grants, child welfare, child support, food and nutrition programs, agriculture, and rural development.

Before coming to NCSL, Lee was a Policy Analyst for the Georgia Senate, focusing on education and early childhood issues, and worked for the Georgia Governor's Office of Planning and Budget.

She holds an M.A. in Political Science from Georgia State University and a B.A. in English from Davidson College.

Angela Andrews

Program Director,
Legislative Staff Services

angela.andrews@ncsl.org

303.856.1349

National Council of State Legislatures

Angela McConnell Andrews is Program Director for NCSL's Legislative Staff Services Program and leads a team whose core focus is providing NCSL services and resources to legislative staff.

She previously staffed NCSL's Legislative Effectiveness Standing Committee and is knowledgeable about constituent service, outreach and citizen engagement practices, civility initiatives, and other topics related to the legislative institution.

She also coordinated NCSL's Legislator Back to School Program, under the Trust for Representative Democracy.

Angela has worked in or for legislatures for more than 12 years. Prior to joining NCSL in 2008, Angela served as a legislative aide in the Massachusetts House of Representatives and the United States Senate.

She received her Master's in Public Administration from Suffolk University in Boston, Massachusetts.

