FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2025 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. CSHB 101

Analysis

This bill expands protections for minors by raising the age threshold for various criminal offenses from 16 to 18 years old, increasing penalties for crimes against children, and modifying sentencing guidelines. The Department of Public Safety (DPS), through its Victim Services Administration and Support (VSAS) program, has reviewed the provisions of this legislation and does not anticipate a fiscal impact at this time.

The VSAS program currently provides advocacy, coordination, and support for victims of crimes covered under existing law. While this bill modifies statutory definitions and penalties, DPS does not expect these changes to significantly increase the demand for victim services or require additional resources.

While it is unknown how many cases will be seen should this bill become law, DPS will continue to monitor the impacts of this bill and assess whether additional resources may be needed in the future. With the information currently available, DPS anticipates no fiscal impact from this bill.
