FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2025 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

In numerous statutes related to defining minors as under 16 years of age in criminal statutes, this bill raises that to 18 years of age. In sexual abuse of a minor cases this bill raises the age of the victim from 13-15 years of age to 13-17 years of age and raises the age of consent from 16 to 18 years of age.

The Agency is unable to effectively predict how many people would be charged under this expansion of the definition of minors in sex crimes and, of those, the number that would be appointed counsel. The Agency therefore submits an indeterminate fiscal note pending either caseload estimates from the Department of Law.
