FISCAL NOTE ANALYSISSTATE OF ALASKA
2026 LEGISLATIVE SESSION*Analysis

This bill modernizes AS 13.36 Trust Administration and AS 34.40 Fraudulent Transfers, Revocations, and Trusts to bring Alaska in line with other states while customizing language for Alaska. The bill provides innovation to Alaska's trust and estate laws and includes flexibility for trustees, states the court will protect the privacy of a settlor and the beneficiaries of a noncharitable trust by sealing the court record, and updates time for cause of action or claim for relief. This bill seeks to modernize the administration of Alaska trust law by revising rules and providing clear definitions for the term fiduciary duties, ascertainable standards, and beneficiary. This bill aligns Alaska with other states, enabling trustees to better serve trust beneficiaries and may make Alaska more favorable for asset transactions and generational wealth planning.

The Division of Banking and Securities ("Division") is the primary regulator for Alaska Trust Companies under AS 06.26, but the division does not regulate AS 13.36 or AS 34.40 amended in this bill. These statutes provide guidance on how trusts are structured and administered through a court and are not something that the division has been empowered to regulate. The bill does not stipulate any regulatory or supervisory requirements for the division. The Division does not anticipate fiscal impact from this legislation.
