ANALYSIS: (Attach a separate page if necessary)

Indeterminate fiscal impact to Department of Fish and Game. If the planning effort for this new reserve were one similar to what we do in concert with the Alaska Board of Fisheries whereby we hold and solicit public input and craft specific regulations for this area that could be done with existing functions and resources. However, if the planning effort involved a suite of meetings and staff travel from Goodnews to McGrath and points in between then the department would incur some one time additional costs.
