Serving Older Alaskans and Their Families Since 1978

A publication of Older Persons Action Group, Inc. 325 E. Third Ave., Suite 300, Anchorage, Alaska 99501

Vol. 32 No. 11 November, 2009

esperate senior prompts denture legislation and needed program. sense fix to an otherwise successful support that will provide a commontion, and I am prepared to introduce at all. The state's wholly inadequate legislation this session with bipartisan tunate situation set my office in moresponse to this constituent's unforat all, seeing as how he had no teeth set of options was really no choice not in the same year. Of course, this that he needed, but not both, at least half or the lower half of the dentures he could receive either the upper had been told that he had a choice gentleman had come from the Medsituation for me and my staff. This it was a very tense and upsetting to commit suicide. Needless to say walked into my office and threatened icaid Adult Dental office, where he Late last summer, an elderly man successful program permanent.

clines. In addition, good dental health patients have avoided painful surgerstate has saved millions of dollars and preventative care - exams, cleanings, ies as the need for emergency care deroot canals, fillings and dentures - the services for low income Alaskans. By expanding the program to cover icaid only covered emergency dental three years ago. Until that time, Med-Medicaid Adult Dental was created the kind of frustrating flaw in our other serious diseases. Last year, the legislature unanimously made this for diabetes, heart disease, cancer and is closely linked with decreased risk under the Medicaid Adult Dental program to Services to allow patients who qualify for dentures receive their full set of dentures in one sitting. I have worked with the Dept. of Health and Social gives government a bad name.

patients need to make things more. be forced to schedule the care their dental care in the fall or winter, and ing citizens who happen to require I don't believe that dentists should believe that we should be punishthe lower dentures on July 1. I don't final day of the state fiscal year, and the upper dentures on June 30, the lic testimony on these limits, it was of a set of dentures per year. In pubprogram by limiting patients to half have impacted the function of the suggested that a patient could receive measures go beyond cost control and budgetary times. Unfortunately, these important feature in these uncertain intended as a cost-control measure, an be paid for in a single year, which is The program limits the care that can system that drives people crazy and to have received bi-partisan support session in January, and I am pleased when the legislature goes back into from my colleagues in the Senate. in place. The bill will be introduced cost-control mechanisms currently in one sitting, without destroying the to receive their full set of dentures the Medicaid Adult Dental program tients who qualify for dentures under Services to develop a way to allow pathe Department of Health and Social That's why I have worked with convenient for bureaucrats. This is spent to do it all over again for the other half. Allowing him and other a little while later, public money is neau, pays for their lodging, and pays change makes. A dentist in Juneau for one half of their dentures. Then, The state pays for them to fly to Jufrom all around Southeast Alaska. told me about the patients he sees more about how much sense this small on this issue, I have heard more and In fact, as I have continued to work > of care received by patients. the program a more efficient use of are giving into one session will make dentists to consolidate the care they public money and improve the quality need - and that's a job I'm glad to the lives of a few senior citizens in change the world, but it will improve not too late for others in his situation existing two-year process - but it's him to get his dentures through the privileged to serve. It's too late for the gentleman who threatened to kill neighbors and constituents we are tics and give a direct benefit to the require us to place people over poli-This may be a small bill, and it won't himself in my office—we worked with hard to do and often happens slowly. But sometimes, there are issues that help generate campaign slogans. issues that attract press coverage or Most of the attention goes to the big unwieldy bureaucracy, and change is State government can be a large and as the Majority Leader of the Senate Bi-Partisan Working Group. in the Alaska State Senate and serves downtown and midtown Anchorage Senator Johnny Ellis represents