10 (a) A legislator or legislative employee may not

11 (1) solicit, agree to accept, or accept a benefit other than official 12 compensation for the performance of public duties; this paragraph may not be 13 construed to prohibit lawful solicitation for and acceptance of campaign contributions, 14 solicitation or acceptance of contributions for a charity event, as defined in 15 AS 24.60.080(a)(2)(B), or the acceptance of a gift [LAWFUL GRATUITY] under

 21 not prohibit

22 (A) limited use of state property and resources for personal 23 purposes if the use does not interfere with the performance of public duties and 24 either the cost or value related to the use is nominal or the legislator or 25 legislative employee reimburses the state for the cost of the use;

26 (B) the use of mailing lists, computer data, or other information
 27 lawfully obtained from a government agency and available to the general 28 public for nonlegislative purposes;

1 (C) the legislative council, notwithstanding AS 24.05.190, from 7 (D) a legislator from using the legislator's private office in the 8 capital city during a legislative session, and for the 10 days immediately before 9 and the 10 days immediately after a legislative session, for nonlegislative

10 purposes if the use does not interfere with the performance of public duties and 11 if there is no cost to the state for the use of the space and equipment, other than 12 utility costs and minimal wear and tear, or the legislator promptly reimburses 13 the state for the cost; an office is considered a legislator's private office under

29 if there is no cost to the state for the use of the space and equipment, other than 30 utility costs and minimal wear and tear, or the legislator promptly reimburses

 17 licensed in the state;

18 (2) the contact is made in the presence of all parties to the hearing or

2             (c) A legislator or legislative employee who participates in a program or

14 legislative employee asks the committee to keep any part of the disclosure confidential
15 and a quorum of the committee determines by vote of a majority of committee
16 members that making the entire disclosure public would cause an unjustifiable 17 invasion of personal privacy, the committee may elect to publish only the fact that a 18 person has participated in the program and the amount of benefit that the unnamed 19 person received. The committee shall maintain the disclosure of the name of the 3 committee or a person authorized to act on behalf of the committee, a person who 4 seeks to refrain from making a disclosure under this subsection shall provide the 5 committee with justification in writing, and the committee may review the written 6 justification to determine whether it is sufficient.

7 * Sec. 11. AS 24.60.112 is repealed and reenacted to read:

8 Sec. 24.60.112. Applicability to legislative interns. A legislative intern shall 24 shall designate the regular member's alternate to participate in place of the regular 25 member at the proceeding, and the alternate shall participate for the duration of that 26 proceeding unless the alternate is unable to participate.

27 (d) If a regular member of the committee or a subcommittee or an alternate 28 member appointed under (a) or (b) of this section participates at the commencement of 29 a proceeding under AS 24.60.170, the member shall participate for the duration of the 30 proceeding unless the member is disqualified under AS 24.60.130(h) or is unable to

(e) If both a regular legislative member and that member's alternate appointed under (a) of this section are not available to participate at the commencement of a proceeding under AS 24.60.170 because they are disqualified under AS 24.60.130(h), the presiding officer of the house in which the two members serve shall appoint from that house an alternate and designate that alternate to participate in the proceeding; however, if the two members who are not available to participate are not members of the majority organizational caucus, the leader of the minority organizational caucus with the greatest number of members shall appoint from that house an alternate and designate that alternate to participate in the proceeding.

(f) A designation under (c) - (e) of this section shall be treated as confidential to the same extent that the identity of the subject of a complaint is required to be kept confidential.
