* Sec. 3. AS 43.23.008 is amended by adding new subsections to read:

(e) After an individual has been absent from the state for more than 180 days in each of the five preceding qualifying years, the department shall presume that the individual is no longer a state resident. Subject to the limitation in (c) of this section, the individual may rebut this presumption by providing proof to the department that establishes, by clear and convincing evidence, that

(1) the individual was physically present in the state for at least 30 cumulative days during the past five years; and

(2) the individual is a state resident as defined in AS 43.23.095(7).

(f) To determine whether an individual intends to return and remain in the

1 state indefinitely, the factors the department shall consider include

2 (1) the length of time the individual was absent from the state
3 compared to the length of time the individual was physically present in the state;

4 (2) the frequency and duration of voluntary return trips to the state
5 during the past five years;

6 (3) whether the individual's intent to return to and remain in the state is 7 conditioned on future events beyond the individual's control, such as the financial 8 circumstances of the individual or the ability of the individual to find employment in 9 the state;

10 (4) the ties the individual has established with the state or another
11 jurisdiction, as demonstrated by

12 (A) maintenance of a home;

13 (B) payment of resident taxes;

14 (C) registration of a vehicle;

15 (D) registration to vote and voting history;

16 (E) acquisition of a driver's license, business license, or 17 professional license; and

18 (F) receipt of benefits under a claim of residency in the state or 19 another jurisdiction;

20 (5) the priority that the individual gave the state on an employment
21 assignment preference list, including a list used by military personnel;

23 that does not allow the individual to reside in or return to the state.
