FISCAL NOTE #6

STATE OF ALASKA 2011 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

$\Lambda n \gamma$
MIIA	lvsis

This legislation creates a new crime of violating protective orders and adds aggravating factors at sentencing for a crime against a victim 65 years or older. Violation of this law could result in incarceration. However, the Department of Corrections is unable to determine the number of future offenders and therefore is unable to determine the fiscal impact of the passage of this legislation.	t
