- Ownership of the submerged lands beneath streams and lakes is not shown on this map. Submerged lands beneath streams less than three chains wide (198 feet) and lakes less than fifty acres in area are conveyed to the Native Corporation which owns the surrounding uplands and channels against its ANCSA entitlement. Lands underneath larger lakes and streams belongs to the State of Alaska.
- Information for each of the numbered intrusions is summarized on a separate list available from NANA.
- Parcel sizes shown on this map are approximations.
- An Interim Conveyance (IC) is a title document issued to the Native Corporation by the federal government. It is the same as a patent except that the land has not yet been surveyed.
- The land status shown on this map is for the author's estate only. NANA Regional Corporation owns the subsurface estate to all lands conveyed by IC or patent.
- Land Status shown on this map is based on the most current available federal land status records. NANA makes no warranties as to the accuracy or currency of the information displayed.
