FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2014 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. SB 108

Analysis

Senate Bill 108, sponsored by Senator Dyson, would bar public access to criminal case records or files in instances where the accused defendant was either acquitted or the prosecution dismissed the case. If enacted as filed, the bill would protect the Office of Public Advocacy (OPA) clients whose criminal cases fit into one or the other of those categories. The bill would also impede the ability of OPA professionals, including attorneys, guardians ad litem and public guardians, from using those court files as a source of information or evidence about witnesses, backgrounds and physical evidence.

The bill, if enacted, would therefore have some impact upon OPA operations, administration and clients. The public and other agencies and companies which may rely upon criminal case records for background and research information would, in such cases, have to seek desired information from other sources. The fiscal impact would likely be slight but could increase with the use of alternative methods and sources for acquiring information and evidence. The Office of Public Advocacy submits a zero impact fiscal note at this time.
