Evolution of the Senior Benefits Program
1972 - 2003	Alaska Longevity Bonus Program. The Alaska Longevity Bonus Program was established in 1972. Alaska residents became eligible upon reaching the age of 65. $250/month was issued to seniors who applied before 1994, $200 to those applying in 1994, $150 to those applying in 1995, and $100 to those applying in 1996. Payments were not available to seniors who applied after 1996. The program was subsequently defunded in 2003, and final benefits were issued for the month of August 2003.
2003 - 2004	Senior Assistance Program. Beginning September 2003, the Governor's office used its executive authority to establish the needs-based Senior Assistance program in response to the needs of low-income Alaskans aged 65 and older who were financially impacted by the elimination of the Alaska Longevity Bonus. Payments were limited to $120/month. The program ended March 2004.
2004 - 2007	SeniorCare Program. Beginning April 2004, the SeniorCare Program was established to replace the former Senior Assistance Program. The new program was expanded to include a prescription drug benefit. Low-income seniors that passed the program's income and resource limits could choose to receive either a $120/month payment or a prescription drug benefit. The program ended July 2007.
2007 - Present	Senior Benefits Program. Beginning August 2007, the Senior Benefits Program was established to replace the SeniorCare Program. The program provides three payment levels that are based on the senior's gross annual income. Income limits are tied to the Federal Poverty Guidelines for Alaska and change each year as the poverty level changes. There is no asset test. The program is currently set to expire on June 30, 2015.
