FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2014 LEGISLATIVE SESSION

BILL NO. SB 201

Analysis

This bill repeals the sections of law which allow a person to enter and remain on apparently unused and unimproved land unless they have notice that they are trespassing. This removes the property owner's responsibility to provide notice of trespass in a reasonably conspicuous manner. It also makes any action of entering and remaining on property without the privilege to do so criminal trespass.

Criminal trespass in the second degree is a class B misdemeanor and is punishable by a term of imprisonment of not more than 90 days. At this time it is not known how many individuals would be incarcerated as a result of this legislation. However, the Department could see a fiscal impact of $0 (no days served) to $14,280.30 (90 days served) for each class B misdemeanor conviction under this legislation. The Department will continue to monitor the future impacts of this legislation.
