United States Senate

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Section 1631(d) of Public Law (P.L.) 111-383, the Ike Skelton National Defense Authorization Act for Fiscal Year (FY) 2011, requires the Secretary of Defense to submit to the Committees on Armed Services reports of sexual assaults provided by the Military Departments, along with his analysis. Sexual assault prevention and response (SAPR) falls under my purview, and I have been asked to respond.

The "Department of Defense Fiscal Year 2012 Annual Report on Sexual Assault in the Military" presents Department of Defense (DoD) statistics and analysis of reports of sexual assault during FY12, discusses policy and program improvements to sexual assault, and outlines future plans to enhance support to victims of sexual assault. The numerical data and statistics contained in this report are drawn from metrics identified in the Department's evaluation plan, which fulfills additional reporting requirements outlined in section 1602 of P.L. 111-383. The report responds to additional reporting requirements in section 567 of P.L. 111-84 and section 596 of P.L. 109-163. An interim report required by section 578 of P.L. 112-239 is provided at Enclosure 5 to the report.

In FY12, the Department reissued the SAPR Directive and the Joint Chiefs of Staff released strategic guidance to operationalize the SAPR Program across the Total Force. Under the leadership of the Secretary of Defense, new policies and programs were implemented regarding initial disposition authority, victim communications, sexual assault advocate certification, reporting options, records retention, expedited transfers, and SAPR support services.

There is more to do and the Department is actively pursuing additional efforts at all levels of leadership. In FY13, the Department will revise the DoD-wide SAPR strategic plan, implement new Department-wide SAPR policy, and broaden the scope of the SAPR Program by significantly expanding goals and objectives related to improving accountability and investigations within the Department. The Department stands committed to its goal of reducing, with a goal of eliminating the crime of sexual assault in the Armed Forces.

Thank you for your commitment to our Service members. I am sending a similar letter to the Chairman of the House Committee on Armed Services.

Sincerely,

Jessica L. Wright

Courts-Martial for a Sexual Assault Offense

As noted previously, of the 880 military subjects against whom disciplinary action was initiated for a sexual assault offense, 594 had court-martial charges preferred against them (Exhibit 10, Point R). Exhibit 12 illustrates what happened to these subjects after their commanders preferred court-martial charges. The dispositions and the sentences imposed by courts-martial are for those subjects with at least one sexual assault charge adjudicated in FY12. Of the 594 subjects who had court-martial charges preferred against them in FY12, 460 subjects' court-martial outcomes were completed by the end of the FY:

What percentage of Service member subjects charged and tried for sexual assault offenses were convicted in FY12, and what kind of punishment did they receive?

79% of Service members tried for a sexual assault offense were convicted of at least one charge at trial.

Most subjects received four kinds of punishment: Confinement, a Fine or Forfeiture of Pay, Reduction in Rank, and a Punitive Discharge or Dismissal.

- Court-martial charges were dismissed against 88 subjects. However, commanders used evidence gathered during the sexual assault investigations to take nonjudicial punishment against 16 of the 88 subjects. Most of the 16 subjects who received nonjudicial punishment were adjudged three categories of punishment: reductions in rank, fines or forfeitures, and restrictions on liberty.
- Seventy subjects were granted a resignation or were discharged instead of court-martial.
- Of the 302 subjects whose cases proceeded to trial: 238 subjects (79 percent) were convicted, and most convicted Service members received at least four kinds of punishment: confinement, reduction in rank, fines or forfeitures, and a discharge (enlisted) or dismissal (officers) from service.
- Sixty-four subjects (21 percent) were acquitted.

Resignations and discharges in lieu of court-martial are granted by the Department in certain circumstances. These separation actions may only occur after court-martial charges have been preferred against the accused. For such an action to occur, the accused must initiate the process. Resignation or discharge in lieu of court-martial requests include a statement of understanding of the offense(s) charged and the consequences of administrative separation, an acknowledgement that any separation could possibly have a negative characterization, and an acknowledgement that the accused is guilty of an offense for which a punitive discharge is authorized or a summary of the evidence supporting the guilt of the accused. These statements are not admissible in courts-martial should the request ultimately be disapproved. Discharges of enlisted personnel in lieu of court-martial are usually approved at the Special Court-Martial Convening Authority level. Resignations of officers in lieu of court-martial are approved by the Secretary of the Military Department.

In FY12, 62 of 66 enlisted members who received a discharge in lieu of court-martial were separated Under Other Than Honorable Conditions (UOTHC), the lowest characterization of discharge possible administratively (two subjects received General discharges, and information was not available for the other two). The UOTHC discharge characterization is recorded on the Service member's DD Form 214, Record of Military Service, and significantly limits separation and post-service benefits from the Department and DVA. Military Service policies direct that those Service members convicted on a sexual assault charge who do not receive a punitive discharge at court-martial should be processed for administrative discharge. This requirement for administrative separation processing was codified in the NDAA for FY13.
