SB 98 SECTIONAL SUMMARY

Section 1

Prohibits the State Medical Board from imposing discipline on a physician licensed in the state for rendering a diagnosis or providing a treatment without a physical examination if the physician or another physician or licensed health care provider's practice is available for follow-up care, and the physician requests that the patient consent to release copies of records of the encounter to the primary care physician and, if the patient does consent, the physician sends the records.

Section 2

A conforming amendment.
