Subject: Invest in students -- restore education funding!
Date: Monday, March 30, 2015 10:50:35 AM

Please keep you promise. I don't believe cutting on education is going to accomplish a single thing. Nothing is worse in life then uneducated people running our system as it is happening today. All I see is pure disrespect for our country. Selfish legislatures and congressmen. We have been losing our most valueable representatives. Who truly believed in us. The scariest feeling I have been experiencing lately is not what is happening around the world as much as what has been having what's been happening in our own country. Please help us keep our educational budget as promised.

Sincerely,

Martha McQuiston
