CSHB 351 Version E Sectional Analysis

Section 1. Amends AS 44.62.020, the authority to adopt, administer, or enforce regulations. A new section is added that states a state agency and the lieutenant governor may not adopt new regulations unless they:

- are part of the initial regulations
- repeal one or more existing regulations that are equal to or lesser than the proposed new regulation
- are adopted as an emergency regulation
- are implemented following a state or federal law being enacted.

Section 2. Adds a new subsection to AS 44.62.040 that reads the Lt. Governor may not accept regulations if an existing regulation is not repealed. The Lt. Governor can extend the time for adopting a regulation Section 3. It applies to regulations adopted after the effective date of this bill.

Section 4. The effective date clause.
