BUSINESS AGENT

YEARS EMPLOYED (APRIL 2011 - PRESENT)

UA Local 367: Plumbers and Steamfitters

The business agent manages the daily business matters of UA Local 367, such as hiring office staff, record keeping and handling the dispatch and referral of members to work. This position provides a range of representation to members that includes the following: grievance handling through the arbitration level; contract negotiations, assisting, developing, training and mentoring the elected leadership. Duties involve negotiating and/or assisting in contract negotiations, including proposal development and contract campaigns; train and assist stewards and officers in representation work, such as grievances and disciplinary appeals up to arbitration; appearing before governmental councils, boards and commissions, working with coalitions and other labor organizations.

PRESIDENT

ELECTED (JUNE 2013 – PRESENT)

Building and Construction Trades Council of Southcentral Alaska

The Building and Construction Trades Council is an organization which conserves the interests of all labor organizations engaged in the construction or alteration of buildings in Southcentral Alaska. The purpose of the council is to enable labor organizations to assist each other when necessary, avoid jurisdictional grievances and secure unity of action for their mutual protection. Duties involve negotiating and/or assisting in contract negotiations, including proposal development and contract campaigns; appearing before governmental councils, boards and commissions, working with coalitions and other labor organizations.

ORGANIZER

YEARS EMPLOYED (APRIL 2007 – APRIL 2011)

UA Local 367: Plumbers and Steamfitters Union

The role of the organizer is to increase market share by recruiting people interested in entering into the plumbing and pipefitting trade, signing contractors seeking skilled labor, and assisting workers interested in representation at their worksite. The organizer educates workers about their rights, identifies and develops leadership skills among workers. This job requires excellent social and interpersonal communication skills and working collaboratively with coalitions and other labor organizations.
