Biography of Wendi Shackelford

Revised: June 2016

Wendi Shackelford served as a uniformed police officer with the Anchorage Police Department from November 14, 1994 to January 31, 2015, when she retired. She worked within the patrol division until May 2003, when she transferred to Chugiak High School as one of the first School Resource Officers (SRO) within the Municipality of Anchorage. She served ten years as an SRO within Chugiak High School, Mirror Lake Middle School, and four Eagle River/Chugiak area elementary schools to answer police calls for service, teach DARE and other topics, and build positive relationships with students, staff, parents, and the community. She was assigned full time with the patrol division as CIT Coordinator from June 1, 2013 to January 31, 2015.

Wendi was an FBI/LAPD-trained hostage negotiator for APD from December 1997 to January 2004. She has served as the Coordinator and lead instructor for the Anchorage Police Department's Crisis Intervention Program (CII) program since its inception in October 2001. At the CII training, mental health and other professionals voluntarily provide expert instruction to law enforcement/first responders during an intensive 40 hour course in which attendees are educated about mental illnesses, medications, suicide and crisis intervention, active listening skills, de-escalation techniques, empathy, and respect. The attendees also participate in extensive role playing exercises which illustrate these principles. As a result, consumers and their families receive an immediate response to crisis by police officers who are educated in mental illness and de-escalation techniques. In addition, consumers are identified and provided access to appropriate mental health care by those officers.

Wendi had the opportunity to attend the 40 hour Crisis Intervention Team training in Memphis, Tennessee (the home of CIT) in October 2001 with Steve Montooth (mental health provider), Yvonne Evans (family member), and Doug Moore (mental health consumer). Since that time, the Anchorage Police Department, led by Wendi, has conducted fifteen(15) Crisis Intervention Team academies, training 400 first responders, law enforcement, and other professionals across the State of Alaska. Since retirement, Wendi has assisted the APD with two additional CIT academies. She is currently providing technical assistance to the Mat Su CIT Coalition on developing its own CIT 40 hour training course, slated for February 2017. In addition, Wendi attended a 36 hour course in Colorado in 2007 designed for School Resource officers for CIT approaches with youth.

Wendi was awarded her Advanced Police Certificate from the Alaska Police Standards Council (APSC) in 2001. She was certified by the APSC in 2006 as an instructor for the Crisis Intervention Team and DARE. In 2015, Mental Health First Aid for Public Safety was added to her instructor certification with APSC and she has recently requested Youth Mental Health First Aid, Adult Mental Health First Aid, and QPR Gatekeeper suicide prevention curriculums be added to her instructor certificate (June 2016).

In addition, the International Conference of Police Chaplains (ICPC) credentials her as a basic chaplain (January 2011) and liaison officer (July 2012). She was also credentialed as a basic chaplain with the Chaplain Fellowship Ministries Inc (CFMI) in July 2012 and as a Disaster Response Chaplain by the Southern Baptist Convention (January 2012). She successfully completed the basic chaplain academy with 46 hours of intense instruction through the Police and Fire Training Academy hosted by Tacoma Pierce County Chaplaincy (TPCC) in May 2014.

Wendi obtained the Training Coordinator position for Youth Mental Health First Aid with the UAA Center for Human Development Alaska Training Cooperative on February 2, 2015 and has been assisting more than 50 instructors to exceed SAMSHA-grant deliverables since arriving on scene.
