HOUSE CS FOR SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 2(RLS)

IN THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA

THIRTIETH LEGISLATURE - FIRST SESSION

BY THE HOUSE RULES COMMITTEE

Offered: Referred:

REPRESENTATIVE Kawasaki

A RESOLUTION

Proclaiming April 2017 and April 2018 as Sexual Assault Awareness Month; proclaiming April 2017 and April 2018 as Child Abuse Prevention Month; and proclaiming April 7, 2017, and April 6, 2018, as Go Blue Friday.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

WHEREAS sexual assault affects women, children, and men of all racial, cultural, and economic backgrounds and occurs through acquaintance rape, stranger rape, sexual assault by a partner, child sexual abuse, incest, sexual harassment, prostitution, and pornography; and

WHEREAS the crime of sexual assault violates an individual's privacy, dignity, security, and humanity and leaves long-lasting physical and emotional scars that can influence every aspect of an individual's life; and

WHEREAS results from the 2015 Alaska Victimization Survey show an estimated 33.1 out of every 100 Alaska women have experienced sexual assault within their lifetime; and

WHEREAS results from the 2015 Alaska Victimization Survey reflect alcohol- or drug-involved sexual violence dropped from 26.8 percent in the 2010 survey to 22.6 percent;

1 and

2 WHEREAS, despite tremendous progress, Alaska still has the highest rates of sexual 3 violence in the nation; and

4 WHEREAS 2,126 children were evaluated by child advocacy centers in the state for 5 possible sexual abuse last year; and

6 WHEREAS 1,625 adult victims of sexual assault sought services at rape crisis centers 7 in the state last year; and

8 WHEREAS it is important to recognize the compassion, commitment, and dedication 9 of the individuals who provide services to sexual assault survivors and work to reduce and 10 eliminate sexual violence; and

11 WHEREAS, in 2016, 16 communities--Anchorage, Barrow, Bethel, Cordova, 12 Dillingham, Eielson Air Force Base, Fairbanks, Fort Wainwright, Juneau, Kodiak, Kotzebue, 13 Nome, Palmer, Seward, Unalaska, and Valdez--have sexual assault response teams to 14 investigate more effectively crimes of sexual violence; and

15 WHEREAS research indicates the need to develop comprehensive sexual violence 16 prevention programs that target multiple, interacting risk and protective factors in 17 behaviorally relevant ways; and

18 WHEREAS communities across the state are taking up the challenge, implementing 19 evidence-based prevention programs, such as Girls on the Run, Coaching Boys into Men, and 20 Green Dot Alaska; and

21 WHEREAS, because one person, organization, agency, or community cannot, by 22 itself, eliminate sexual violence, the citizens of Alaska need to work together to educate the 23 entire population of the state about what can be done to eliminate sexual assault; and

24 WHEREAS schools across the state are implementing the Fourth R-healthy 25 relationships curriculum in grades seven through nine, which has been shown to reduce 26 adherence to rape myths and to enhance social and emotional learning focusing on self-27 management and responsible decision-making; and

28 WHEREAS positive healthy male role models are engaging boys through programs 29 such as COMPASS to explore and adopt concepts of masculinity that include respect for 30 women and nonviolent models of manhood; and

31 WHEREAS victims, survivors, and their families deserve support; by uniting in this

1 effort, the citizens of this state can make a difference; last year over 3,100 volunteers devoted 2 48,483 hours of service in the state; and

3 WHEREAS the state currently has one of the five highest rates of child abuse in the 4 United States; and

5 WHEREAS, in fiscal year 2015, the Department of Health and Social Services, 6 Office of Children's Services, received more than 40,000 allegations of harm involving tens of 7 thousands of children; and

8 WHEREAS, for every 1,000 children in the state, 42 are victims of abuse; and

9 WHEREAS more than 2,000 children in the state have been removed from unsafe 10 homes and placed in foster care; and

11 WHEREAS child abuse and neglect leave cross-generational damage resulting in 12 approximately 30 percent of abused or neglected children who will grow up to abuse or 13 neglect their children; and

14 WHEREAS 36 percent of all women in prison and 14 percent of all men in prison 15 were abused or neglected as children; and

16 WHEREAS children who experience child abuse or neglect are about nine times
17 more likely to become involved in criminal activity than children who do not experience child 18 abuse or neglect; and

19 WHEREAS the long-term effects of child abuse include improper brain formation, an 20 inability to trust, low self-esteem, and an increased vulnerability to post-traumatic stress 21 disorder, sexually transmitted diseases, heart disease, cancer, and depression; and

22 WHEREAS every child deserves a loving family, a safe home, and the opportunity to 23 grow into an upstanding and responsible member of society; and

24 WHEREAS we must work together to support the efforts of all those who take 25 children into their homes and hearts because the community as a whole suffers in every case
26 of child abuse and neglect;

27 BE IT RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature proclaims April 2017 and 28 April 2018 to be Sexual Assault Awareness Month and encourages all of the residents of the 29 state to observe Sexual Assault Awareness Month by taking action to prevent sexual violence;
30 and be it

31 FURTHER RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature proclaims April 2017 and

1 April 2018 to be Child Abuse Prevention Month in the state; and be it

2 FURTHER RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature proclaims April 7, 2017,
3 and April 6, 2018, as Go Blue Friday, a day to wear blue, the official color of prevention, and 4 to work to keep the state's children safe and encourages all state employees and other 5 residents of the state to participate; and be it

6 FURTHER RESOLVED that the Alaska State Legislature supports and encourages 7 all state employees and other residents of the state to support child abuse prevention and 8 education efforts.
