

JOYCE M. ANDERSON

EDUCATION

Master of Arts - Public Administration; Hamline University, St. Paul, MN 1996

Minnesota Certified Municipal Clerk (MCMC); University of Minnesota, St. Paul, MN 1993

Bachelor of Arts - Business Administration; Metropolitan State University, Minneapolis, MN 1985

Associate in Applied Science - Business; Metropolitan State Junior College, Minneapolis, MN 1972

PROFESSIONAL BACKGROUND

CONSULTANT (July 2014-March 1, 2016): Select Committee on Legislative Ethics

ADMINISTRATOR (June 2001-July 2014): Select Committee on Legislative Ethics

CONSULTANT (1999-2000): Elections and Voter Registration, City of Minneapolis

DIRECTOR (1985-1999): Elections and Voter Registration, City of Minneapolis

SUPERVISOR (1985): Police Department, Records Division, City of Minneapolis

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR (1982-1985): Elections and Voter Registration, City of Minneapolis

SUPERVISOR (1979-1982): Preventable Disease Division, City of Minneapolis Health Department

Various Clerical Positions (1970-1978), City of Minneapolis

TRAINING

National Certified Investigator Advanced Training, University of Kentucky, 2008

National Certified Investigator Basic Training, University of Kentucky, 2004

Certificate, Effective Presentations/ How to Deal with the Media, St. Paul, MN, 1990

VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

Member, Anchorage Stakeholders Group Vote-by-Mail, 2015 to present

Member, Anchorage Municipal Election Commission, appointed November 2012

Officer, League of Women Voters Anchorage, 2000 to present

Officer, Independent Order of Foresters (fraternal organization), Anchorage, 2000 to 2004

Officer, Independent Order of Foresters (fraternal organization), Minneapolis, 1978 to 1993.

Member, Brooklyn Park Minnesota Charter Commission, 1990-1994; Chair 1992-94.

INTERESTS

Gardening, hunting, fishing, kayaking and enjoying five grandchildren and one great-grandson.

REFERENCES

Pat Redmond, President, League of Women Voters of Alaska, 240-5585

Barbara A. Jones, Anchorage Municipal Clerk, 343-4312