CHAIR GUTTENBERG said as an outgoing member of this body, it is an honor and a privilege to serve. I spoke this morning with the freshman class and warned them of what they were getting into and also that it will probably be the best job they ever have.

REPRESENTATIVE MILLETT offered heartfelt thanks to political and non-partisan Legislative Affairs Agency (LAA) staff for doing an amazing job that is often thankless and where you get beat up a lot. During my ten years as a legislator, it has been fantastic to work with you. Thank you for all you do to take care of the State's business and the Legislature's buildings. Senator Stevens and Katrina, good luck with Legislative Council.

-DRAFT-

SENATOR MACKINNON said thank you to all of my colleagues, to all of our State workers, especially those at LAA. Those who are in the room today do an incredible amount to serve the people of Alaska, thank you from the bottom of my heart. It is a humbling job to work for the people of Alaska and I have been blessed and honored to do so for the last twelve years. Thank you.

VI. ADJOURNMENT

CHAIR GUTTENBERG concluded for those who continue serve, you will have further opportunity to comment. It is a privilege to serve and today we did the people's business and with that we are adjourned. Thank you.
