Dear Senator Hughes,

My name is Shawn McAllister. I am a registered voter in Ketchikan, AK, where I have resided for the last 23 years. I understand that Mr. Dunleavy has appointed Trevor Shaw to his Commission on Judicial Conduct.

For the following reasons, I think you should vote no on his confirmation:

1. Mr. Shaw has no background for such an appointment (An Alaska lawyer has to practice 10 years in the state just to qualify for a position).
2. His track record of service in Ketchikan is nothing less than questionable. He left the school board just before a recall election would have most likely removed him.
3. He doesn't listen to his constituents.
4. He is a hypocrite. While he claims to want to shrink government, he wants to add Ward Cove as a separate borough even though it is already part of the Ketchikan Gateway Borough.

Please help to keep Trevor from being confirmed.

Thank you,
Shawn McAllister

Dear Senator,

My name is Chad Frey and I live in Ketchikan, Alaska. I have worked within the school district for 13 years and during that time I have numerous encounters with Trevor Shaw. Mr. Shaw was the part of the school board here and eventually became president. During his tenure I witnessed him cut off citizens during citizen remarks, and ignoring citizens within the community. The situation became so bad that a petition for a recall went around the community and within two hours there were enough signatures for a recall. Knowing that he would be recalled, Mr. Shaw resigned his position. Now I see our Governor is asking for your confirmation of Trevor Shaw. I would strongly suggest you look at his background and knowledge or even ask Senator Dan Ortiz or even Senator Stedman about Shaw. I am asking your NOT to confirm him.

Thank you for your time,

Chad Frey
