HB145 is another tiny bandaid bill to fix just one problem with SB91. Like the other bandaid bills already passed to fix other problems with SB91, it does not correct the fundamental flaws of SB91. I urge every AK Representative to vote against this joke of a bill at every opportunity.

Governor Dunleavy has proposed a series of comprehensive bills to proactively reform and replace SB91. Together, along with two other Senate bills on sexual assault and sex crimes, these bills address the rampant crime problems impacting Alaskans statewide. In violent crimes, sexual crimes, and property crimes, Alaska is overall the crime capital per capita in the nation.

Do not insult the citizens of Alaska by advancing HB145. Rather, affirmatively respond to Governor Dunleavy's bills and the two sex crime bills!

Thank you!

The Crime in AK is real and Matt Clamans is living a dream. SB 91 must be repealed!
I am a UHaul Dealer and we are hit daily by thugs who steal gas nightly. They either siphon gas or cut the fuel lines on the trucks which requires us to down the truck and then tow it back to town for repairs. We have also lost our BBQ propane tank and tools and wood. We can no longer able to leave any out in the yard. This past winter we have had people try to break in our house while we are sleeping!
Yes we have called the troopers but they can not do anything but write up a report and say they are sorry we can not help you!
Please pass the crime bills.

To the Honorable Matt Claman, Chair, and all committee members,

Please include the changes as recommended in Senate Bills 32, 33,34,35 and 12 as they relate to protecting the people of this state from the rapidly escalating crime rates found in Alaska. Alaska is first in crime, including violent crimes, sexual crimes and property crimes in our nation. Reinforce the tools available in the law, HB 145, to prosecute criminals and protect the public. I've lived in Alaska since 1976 and have experienced a break-in to my home. I home doesn't feel safe. My daughter, her husband and three minor children live in Anchorage. I fear for their safety, especially with the changes in our criminal justice system since the changes in SB91. The best scenario would be to overturn SB91 completely. It is suppose to be a justice system. Justice requires substantial consequences for behavior of those who threaten law abiding citizens and the defenseless among us.

Crime is a major issue in Alaska. Take action by reinforcing HB145 with including SB32, 33, 34, 35 and SB12. Alaska is a state out of criminal control in its current state.

Best regards,

Cheryl Kajdan

Greetings Representative,
I've researched the following bills: SB35; SB12 to HB145, and I have one question for you. How could you sit in office looking directly in the eyes of a victim of sexual abuse knowingly leaving out what SB35 and SB12 have already implemented?

- Strangulation through Sexual Abuse
- Pornography
- Dangerous instrument
- Definition of Sexual Content
- Sexual contact without content
- Sexual penetration without content if offender is incapacitated or mentally incapable
- Longer imprisonments once convicted
- sex Trafficking
- prior convictions both in and out of Alaska
- exploration of Chile 13 and under
- Harassment
- parental content in photo up to certain age
- Definition of Semon
- Sexual Victims oriented! I am a survivor of Sexual Abuse and HB145 has NOTHING to back up and support victims of abuse.

I'm terribly sorry, but as a concerned constituent of Alaska, I cannot support HB145 and ask for the House of Representatives to kill HB145 and wait patiently for SB35 and SB12 to come over. SB35 and SB12 is already written in way that will strongly support Victim of Sexual Abuse through every aspect of the sex crime that has been occurring in the Last Frontier. Please prove to Alaskan citizens that you DO care for the victims of abuse by killing HB145.

Thank you,
Katie Botz
