BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF ALASKA:

* Section 1. The uncodified law of the State of Alaska is amended by adding a new section to read:

LEGISLATIVE FINDINGS AND INTENT. (a) It is the intent of the legislature that the Alaska Court System, the Department of Corrections, and the Department of Public Safety make continued efforts to find efficiencies in the criminal justice system and increase the use of contemporaneous two-way video conference for pretrial hearings whenever possible.

(b) When imposing a sentence, it is the intent of the legislature that the court may take into consideration any good conduct and self-improvement efforts the defendant has made while in pretrial status, including taking general education development, undergraduate, postgraduate, or trade school courses and participating in nonprofit volunteer activities, faithbased activities, and voluntary treatment programs.

(c) It is the intent of the legislature that the Department of Corrections develop a plan to track and measure the effectiveness of evidence-based programs offered to offenders and report its progress on the plan to both the House and Senate Judiciary Committees during the Second Regular Session of the Thirty-First Alaska State Legislature.

(d) The legislature finds that the legislature did not intend, by enacting ch. 90, SLA 2003, and the legislature does not now intend by enacting this Act, to place a limitation on which previous convictions may be considered when imposing a sentence under AS 12.55.125(i), as amended by sec. 75 of this Act.

(e) It is the intent of the legislature that AS 12.55.145(a), as amended by sec. 79 of this Act, overturn the decision of the Alaska Court of Appeals in Williams v. State, 418 P.3d 870 (Alaska Ct. App. 2018) to the extent that the decision held that, when imposing a sentence under AS 12.55.125(i), as amended by sec. 75 of this Act, a prior felony conviction should not be considered if 10 or more years has elapsed between the date of the defendant's unconditional discharge on the immediately preceding offense and the date the defendant committed the present offense unless the prior conviction was for an unclassified or class A felony.

WORK DRAFT

(f) It is the intent of the legislature that all prior felony convictions be considered when imposing a sentence under AS 12.55.125(i), as amended by sec. 75 of this Act, regardless of the amount of time that has passed since each conviction.

(g) The legislature finds that

(1) protecting the public from sex offenders serves a compelling governmental interest, and that the release of certain information about sex offenders to public agencies and the general public assists in protecting the public;

(2) a sex offender who is required to register as a sex offender in the state where the person was convicted may relocate to this state for various reasons;

(3) the Alaska Supreme Court's narrow interpretation of the state's sex offender registration requirements in its decision in State, Department of Public Safety v. Doe, 425 P.3d 115 (Alaska 2018) hinders the state's ability to protect the public from sex offenders who may come to this state in that it requires a person to register as a sex offender in this state only if that person has been convicted of an offense that is similar to a sex offense as defined in AS 12.63.100, as amended by sec. 87 of this Act.

(h) It is the intent of the legislature to overturn State, Department of Public Safety v. Doe, 425 P.3d 115 (Alaska 2018) to the extent that the decision held that a sex offender required to register in another jurisdiction is not required to register in the state unless the person's underlying conviction is similar to a sex offense as defined in AS 12.63.100, as amended by sec. 87 of this Act. Additionally, it is the intent of the legislature to give reciprocity to other jurisdictions and require a sex offender who is physically present in the state and is required to register as a sex offender in another jurisdiction to register as a sex offender in the state regardless of whether the person's underlying conviction is similar to a sex offender sec. 87 of this Act. Additionally, it is the intent of the legislature to give reciprocity to other jurisdictions and require a sex offender who is physically present in the state and is required to register as a sex offender in another jurisdiction to register as a sex offender in the state regardless of whether the person's underlying conviction is similar to a sex offense as defined in AS 12.63.100, as amended by sec. 87 of this Act.

(i) It is the intent of the legislature that the Department of Public Safety make additional resources available to expand investigations of online exploitation of children.

* Sec. 2. AS 11.41.110(a) is amended to read:

(a) A person commits the crime of murder in the second degree if

(1) with intent to cause serious physical injury to another person or knowing that the conduct is substantially certain to cause death or serious physical injury to another person, the person causes the death of any person;

(c) Except as provided in (d) of this section, when a defendant is sentenced to imprisonment, the term of confinement commences on the date of imposition of sentence unless the court specifically provides that the defendant must report to serve the sentence on another date. If the court provides another date to begin the term of confinement, the court shall provide the defendant with written notice of the date, time, and location of the correctional facility to which the defendant must report. A defendant shall receive credit for time spent in custody pending trial, sentencing, or appeal, if the detention was in connection with the offense for which the sentence was imposed [INCLUDING A TECHNICAL VIOLATION OF PROBATION AS PROVIDED IN AS 12.55.110]. A defendant may not receive credit for more than the actual time spent in custody pending trial, sentencing, or appeal. The time during which a defendant is voluntarily absent from official detention after the defendant has been sentenced may not be credited toward service of the sentence.

* Sec. 65. AS 12.55.027(d) is amended to read:

(d) A court may not grant credit against a sentence of imprisonment for time spent in a private residence or under electronic monitoring [IF THE PERSON HAS NOT COMMITTED A CRIMINAL OFFENSE WHILE UNDER ELECTRONIC MONITORING AND THE COURT IMPOSES RESTRICTIONS ON THE PERSON'S FREEDOM OF MOVEMENT AND BEHAVIOR WHILE UNDER THE ELECTRONIC MONITORING PROGRAM, INCLUDING REQUIRING THE PERSON TO BE CONFINED TO A RESIDENCE EXCEPT FOR A

* Sec. 66. AS 12.55.027(e) is amended to read: (e) If a defendant intends to claim credit toward a sentence of imprisonment for time spent in a treatment program [OR UNDER ELECTRONIC MONITORING] either as a condition of probation or as a condition of bail release after a petition to revoke probation has been filed, the defendant shall file notice with the court and the prosecutor 10 days before the disposition hearing. The notice shall include the amount of time the defendant is claiming. The defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the credit claimed meets the requirements of this section. A court may not consider, except for good cause, a request for credit made under this subsection more than 90 days after the disposition hearing. * Sec. 67. AS 12.55.027(f) is amended to read: (f) To qualify as a treatment program under this section, a program must (1) be intended to address criminogenic traits or behaviors; (2) provide measures of progress or completion; and (3) require notification to the prosecuting authority, pretrial services officer, [OFFICE] or probation officer if the person is discharged from the program for noncompliance. * Sec. 68. AS 12.55.027 is amended by adding a new subsection to read: (i) A court granting credit against a sentence of imprisonment under (a) of this section may grant credit of not more than 180 days against the total term of imprisonment imposed. * Sec. 69. AS 12.55.051(a) is amended to read: (a) If the defendant defaults in the payment of a fine or any installment or of restitution or any installment, the court may order the defendant to show cause why the defendant should not be sentenced to imprisonment for nonpayment and, if the payment was made a condition of the defendant's probation, may revoke the probation of the defendant [SUBJECT TO THE LIMITS SET OUT IN AS 12.55.110]. In a contempt or probation revocation proceeding brought as a result of failure to pay a fine or restitution, it is an affirmative defense that the defendant was unable to pay despite having made continuing good faith efforts to pay the fine or restitution. If the court finds that the defendant was unable to pay despite having made continuing good

1	faith efforts, the defendant may not be imprisoned solely because of the inability to
2	pay. If the court does not find that the default was attributable to the defendant's
3	inability to pay despite having made continuing good faith efforts to pay the fine or
4	restitution, the court may order the defendant imprisoned until the order of the court
5	is satisfied [SUBJECT TO THE LIMITS SET OUT IN AS 12.55.110]. A term of
6	imprisonment imposed under this section may not exceed one day for each $50 of the
7	unpaid portion of the fine or restitution or one year, whichever is shorter. Credit shall
8	be given toward satisfaction of the order of the court for every day a person is
9	incarcerated for nonpayment of a fine or restitution.

No pretrial motion shall be held under advisement for more than 30 days and any time longer than 30 days shall not be considered as an excluded period.

(2) The period of delay resulting from an adjournment or continuance granted at the timely request or with the consent of the defendant or [AND] the defendant's counsel. the prompt disposition of criminal offenses, and after consideration of the interests of the crime victim, if known, as provided in (h) of this rule. A defendant without counsel shall not be deemed to have consented to a continuance unless the defendant has been advised by the court of the right to a speedy trial under this rule and of the effect of consent.

(3) The period of delay resulting from a continuance granted at the timely request of the prosecution, if:

(A) The continuance is granted because of the unavailability of evidence material to the state's case, when the prosecuting attorney has exercised due diligence to obtain such evidence and there are reasonable grounds to believe that such evidence will be available at the later date; or

(B) The continuance is granted to allow the prosecuting attorney in a felony case additional time to prepare the state's case and additional time is justified because of the exceptional complexity of the particular case.

(4) The period of delay resulting from the absence or unavailability of the defendant. A defendant should be considered absent whenever the defendant's whereabouts are unknown and in addition the defendant is attempting to avoid apprehension or prosecution or the defendant's whereabouts cannot be determined by due diligence. A defendant should be considered unavailable whenever the defendant's whereabouts are known but the defendant's presence for trial cannot be obtained or the defendant resists being returned to the state for trial.

(5) A reasonable period of delay when the defendant is joined for trial with a codefendant as to whom the time for trial has not run and there is good cause for not granting a severance. In all other cases, the defendant shall be granted a severance in order that the defendant may be tried within the time limits applicable to the defendant.

(6) The period of delay resulting from detention of the defendant in another jurisdiction provided the prosecuting attorney has been diligent and has made reasonable efforts to obtain the presence of the defendant for trial. When the prosecution is unable to obtain the presence of the defendant in detention, and seeks to exclude the period of detention, the prosecution shall cause a detainer to be filed with the official having custody of the defendant and request the official to advise the defendant of the detainer and to inform the defendant of the defendant's rights under this rule.

(7) Other periods of delay for good cause.
