FISCAL NOTE ANALYSIS

STATE OF ALASKA
2020 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONAnalysis

This bill makes broad changes to the sex trafficking statutes, creating a new crime for patronizing a victim of sex trafficking and elevating the penalties on pre-existing crimes. This bill also creates a process for people convicted of prostitution to have those convictions vacated where they can prove they were the victims of sex trafficking at the time of the offense.

The Public Defender Agency anticipates some increase in workload and increasing costs for the Agency related to the litigation of these cases and additional hearings, particularly as the Agency has already seen workload growth in recent fiscal years and is unable to absorb additional increases in workload with current staffing. The Public Defender Agency, therefore, submits an indeterminate fiscal note.
