5 (b) Before issuing bonds to provide the financing described in AS 42.50.600 6 for real or personal property to be owned in whole or in part by an entity other than the 7 corporation, the corporation shall enter into one or more contracts, leases, or other

11 (2) create and maintain any reserves for the bond payments that the 12 corporation considers necessary or desirable; and

13 (3) pay all costs necessary to issue, service, or additionally secure the 17 bonds may be secured by a trust indenture, which may be a trust company, bank or 18 national banking association, with corporate trust powers, located inside or outside the 19 state, or by a secured loan agreement or other instrument or under resolution giving 20 powers to a corporate trustee by means of which the corporation may 22 corporation to the payment of the principal of or interest on bonds of the corporation is

25 The lien of a pledge is valid and binding against all parties having claims of any kind 26 against the corporation, irrespective of whether those parties have notice of the lien of 27 the pledge.

28 (b) Nothing in this section prohibits the corporation from selling assets subject 29 to a pledge, except that a sale may be restricted by the trust agreement or resolution 30 providing for the issuance of the bonds.

31 Sec. 42.50.675. Pledge of the state. The state pledges to and agrees with the holders of bonds issued under this chapter and with the federal agency that loans or contributes funds in respect to a project that the state will not limit or alter the rights and powers vested in the corporation by this chapter to fulfill the terms of a contract made by the corporation with the holders or federal agency, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of the holders until the bonds together with the interest on them with interest on unpaid installments of interest, and all costs and expenses in connection with an action or proceeding by or on behalf of the holders, are fully met and discharged. The corporation is authorized to include this pledge and agreement of the state, insofar as it refers to holders of bonds of the corporation, in a contract with the holders and insofar as it relates to a federal agency, in a contract with the federal agency.

Sec. 42.50.680. Remedies. A holder of bonds issued under this chapter or of coupons attached to them, and a trustee under a trust agreement or resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds, except as restricted by a trust agreement or resolution, either at law or in equity, may

(2) pledge of the faith and credit of the state or of a political subdivision of the state.

(b) The corporation may not pledge the credit or the taxing power of the state or its political subdivisions. Each bond issued under this chapter shall contain on its face a statement that 19 AS 39.

20 (b) Except as provided in this subsection, employees of the corporation are 21 covered by AS 23.10.050 - 23.10.150 (Alaska Wage and Hour Act). However, the 25 in the collective bargaining agreement.

26 Article 9. Miscellaneous Provisions.

28 activities of the corporation, including actions based on contract, quasi-contract, or 29 tort, the person shall bring the claim or lawsuit against the corporation and may not 30 bring the claim or lawsuit against the state.

31 (b) For the purposes of actionable claims, undertakings, payments of 1 judgments, execution, interest, punitive damages, statutes of limitations, costs, and 2 similar matters related to the presentation and prosecution of claims by and against the 3 corporation, the corporation and its board members and employees have the same

13 (b) Promissory notes and the interest and income from them, and all fees, 14 charges, funds, revenue, income, and other money pledged or available to pay or 15 secure the payment of the notes or interest on them, are exempt from taxation by the 16 state or a political subdivision of the state.

17 (c) This section does not affect or limit an exemption from license fees, 18 property taxes, or excise, income, or other taxes, provided under any other law, nor
