Trustees Board has 15 members, including 11 at-large members, 1 faculty member, 1 student member, and 1 staff member all appointed by the Governor.

- Pennsylvania State University:

Trustee Board has 38-Members, including 6 at-large members, 9 alumni-elected members, 6 agriculture members. In addition, the Board elects 6 members- one of which is a faculty member.

EXAMPLES: FLORIDA, KENTUCKY, AND TENNESSEE

- State University system of Florida:

17 members total including 14 at-large members appointed by the Governor, the Chair of the Advisory Council of Faculty Senates, the Commissioner of Education, and the Chair of the Florida Student Association.

- Kentucky State University:

11 voting members, including 8 at-large members, 1 faculty and 1 staff regent elected by their respective governing councils, and 1 student regent.

- Tennessee University System:

18 members total, including 12 at-large members, 1 faculty member, 1 student, and 4 ex-officio members.

HB 180: HOW IT WORKS

- Increases the number of Regents from 11 to 12
- Nominees from the Faculty Senate of each of the three main campuses are put forward
- Governor selects one appointee
- Faculty must be tenured
- Serves a 4-year term (Would like to move to a 2-year term)
- Has the full powers of a regent for voting, travel, and entering executive session
- Tiebreaker vote of the full board can be broken by a vote of the President

HB 180: BENEFITS OF A FACULTY REGENT

- More than a “seat at the table”
- Faculty can enter executive session, travel for Board meetings, and can vote
- Improves the ability for faculty to provide stakeholder interest
- Held to a standard of professionalism- they can recuse themselves from a conflicted vote
- Ensures that faculty, like students, are given a voting interest
