VICE-CHAIR REINBOLD moved that Legislative Council approve the award of RFP 655 for Anchorage armed security services to Phoenix Protective Corporation for a two-year contract and five optional one-year renewals not to exceed the value of $168,000.00 per contract year.

CHAIR HANNAN objected for purposes of discussion and asked Mr. Kestel to speak to this issue.

MR. KESTEL said the current contract for armed security services at the Anchorage LOB expires June 30, 2022. The Agency conducted RFP 655, a solicitation for armed security services, which closed on June 6, 2022. Two vendors submitted proposals: Phoenix Protective Corporation and Security Services Northwest Inc., which were reviewed by a Proposal Evaluation Committee (PEC). PEC members scored the proposals individually and met as a group to record and tally scores once the cost of proposals was added. As a result of the scoring and cost, the PEC recommended awarding RFP 655 to Phoenix Protective Corporation. There were no questions and Chair Hannan removed her objection.
