

Jacob Fletcher

Education:

Fort Lewis College, Durango Colorado studied history and archeology. High school graduate from Steamboat Springs Colorado.

Work Experience:

Alaska Trophy Safaris- 18118 James Way Chugiak Alaska 99567

Bear hunting guide 1998-Present, guiding hunters on Kodiak Island. 1998-2006- Jet Boat Fishing guide Mulchatna River, 1998-2008 Ayakulik River Lodge Guide, guiding fisherman.

Alaska Glacier Adventures- PO Box 368 Klawock Alaska

Black Bear hunting guide, deckhand seasons of 2012-2016

Karluk Wilderness Adventures- PO BOX 168 Kodiak Alaska 99615

Bear viewing guide 2015/Fishing Guide

Alaska's Deshka River Lodge- Mile 1 East Bank Deshka River

Guided fisherman daily and ran jet boats, we had a restaurant and cabin rental business.

Iditarod Trailbreaker- 2009-2018 Put in the trail to Nome, also did pre-trail work to prepare the trail to make it safe.

Mahay's Jet Boat Adventures-

Captain for Mahay's jet boat adventures in Talkeetna Alaska 2017-present

AK Sled Dog Tours/Dallas Seavey Racing Kennel- 2018-present

Dog handler and tour guide for Dallas Seavey.

Licenses:

I hold a current First Aid/CPR card, I am currently enrolled in a Wilderness First Responder Class that will take place in Talkeetna on March 14-22nd. I hold a 25-ton Masters Coast Guard License, masters inland waterways. OPUV near coastal License and I'm a registered guide license number #1326.

References:

Dennis Harms- Owner of Alaska Trophy Safaris 907-696-2484 and 907-441-3483

Steve Mahay- Owner of Mahay's Jet Boat Adventures 907-354-0934

Dallas Seavey- Owner of Ak Sled Dog Tours and Dallas Seavey Racing Kennel 907-398-8653

Mark Nordman- Iditarod Race Marshall- 907-360-1814 (please note that during the month of March he is extremely difficult to get a hold of.)

Extra Information:

I am 41 years old, I am a husband and father of 7 year old twins. I enjoy spending time outdoors with my family, hunting and fishing.